Box History

ORIGIN OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE AND BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS The Federal Reserve began on December 23, 1913.

President Woodrow Wilson expressed grave concerns about the seriousness and the danger of what had just occurred -- the overthrow of the American economic system by a group of private bankers. The first major spark to begin World War I occurred the following June, when Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to the Austria-Hungary throne, was assassinated -- along with his wife. As we revealed in Section Two, World War One had been planned by Guiseppe Mazzini, the head of European Freemasonry, and Albert Pike, the head of American Freemasonry, back in 1871. Their plans were proudly displayed at the National Museum Library in London. In June 1914, Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated by a nationalistic member of a different country -- Serbia. Then, most likely thanks to press manipulation, the public was whipped up into a frenzy -- and they were told that this was an act of war. Assassinations are very easy to stage. That appears to have been a key part of how Pike and Mazzini's plan to start World War One was realized in practical terms. The outrage from this assassination spread throughout Europe. The controlled press in different countries most likely contributed by manipulating their people into taking sides. Germany quickly sided with Austria and Hungary. Germany then declared war on Serbia and her ally, Russia, seeking vengeance for the murder of Archduke Ferdinand.

IT SOON SPIRALED OUT OF CONTROL Germany's declaration of war was on August 1, 1914 -- and very soon afterwards, the whole world began spiraling out of control. Germany invaded Luxembourg, declared war on France and invaded Belgium to have an attack point against France. Britain declared war on Germany in defense -- and even Canada joined the fight. This all occurred in 1914, and the battle raged on until 1919 -- with several other countries getting drawn in along the way. Germany was crushed at the end of the war, and the Treaty of Versailles was drawn up to help rebuild their economy. By 1921, it was clear that nothing had really changed in the world. The rich still got richer, the poor still got poorer, and no one really "won" the Great War -- as it was called back then. Within the insider circles of the international community, much of the problem was blamed on the gold standard -for the reasons outlined in Adam Smith's The Wealth of Nations from 1776. The degree of atrocity that was suffered from the gold standard was sufficient to convince Emperor Hirohito of Japan to travel to the United Kingdom and sign a secret pact, in 1921, to create the Bank of International Settlements (BIS). The BIS was created by the founders of the Federal Reserve, which had started about seven years earlier. We will learn a lot more about them -- and read from their own official documents -- in Section Five. The BIS was intended to expand the powers of the Federal Reserve into a truly global reach... and it worked.

HIROHITO ACCEPTS THE PLAN TO START THE BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS

The plan Hirohito accepted was also secretly agreed to by several other nations in the 1920s. It took time, but a consensus was reached within less than a decade -- and they eventually went public about their new alliance. Whether voluntarily or involuntarily, all the most significant supplies of gold and silver in the world were turned over to the Federal Reserve and Bank of International Settlements and "blacklisted" -- that is, taken off-market. The idea was obviously not to destroy all the gold and treasure -- that would be a stupid and needless tragedy. Instead, the various leaders were told they merely had to put all their gold on deposit. Secret deposit. Everyone still got to keep their gold -- only the public would be told it was missing, or it had never existed in the first place. The Asians certainly hadn't gone public with how much they really had, so that whole story could be easily kept secret.

BONDS WERE ISSUED IN EXCHANGE FOR THE GOLD Each country that handed over its gold -- and / or had its gold forcibly taken -- was given certificates of deposit, or bonds, in exchange for what they gave up. The bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve, through their various banks in major cities of the United States. These bonds were considered to be as valuable and as redeemable as cash. The problem was that the Federal Reserve printed vastly, vastly, vastly more money in these bonds than existed in the open, honest economy -- trillions upon trillions of dollars' worth, beginning in the 1920s. Remember -- the amount of gold that actually existed was much greater than anyone could have ever imagined, since the Asians had kept it all very secret. Had the public found out how much gold there really was, it would have created a massive economic shock. Gold would have become practically worthless overnight. The world leaders needed to know that the gold they put on deposit was still worth its actual value in conventional dollars. Otherwise, they would be really pissed off about not getting "fair market value" for what they were "depositing" with the Federal Reserve.

EVERYTHING WAS PACKAGED VERY NICELY -- AND VERY SECURELY The bonds looked very sexy -- and had huge numbers on them. There were 100,000-dollar gold certificates, million-dollar gold certificates, 100-million-dollar bonds and even billion-dollar bonds. That's right. Single sheets of paper were allegedly worth a billion dollars in some cases. I am aware of how crazy this sounds, but the intel on this is very good -- including pictures that David and Mackie Hutzler may have given their lives for us to see. As an investigator, my job is to pass along the information to you. I cannot assume that I know everything, or that every piece of data is correct. However, when I have multiple, totally independent sources tell me the exact same things, I listen. Though there were several different types of storage containers, many of these bonds were put into 8.5x11-sized boxes carved out of a single piece of durable wood -- about two and a half inches deep, making them almost as big as a typical ream of 500 sheets of paper.

THEY NEEDED TO STAY SECURE FOR 60 YEARS The wooden boxes were then glued shut. That way, the bonds were much less likely to get moldy -- after being stored in a chest and buried underground in a secure location for 60 years. After the 60 years, the Asian countries were told they could dig up the chests, cash out the bonds and get their money back if they wanted to. According to Fulford, Keenan and other sources, in 1938, the Kuomintang dynasty in China sent seven battleships' worth of gold -- a staggering amount -- to the United States to protect against it being stolen by the Japanese. This is a key aspect of the trillion-dollar lawsuit we have been discussing. In response, the United States issued massive amounts of 1934-series Federal Reserve bonds -- carefully sealed in boxes, which were then sealed in locked chests -- and handed them back to China as collateral.

THE 60 YEARS WERE UP IN 1998 -- AND THE FEDERAL RESERVE LOST THE CASE In 1998, the 60 years were up. The Kuomintang had fled to Taiwan and were no longer the ruling party in China, but they still wanted their gold back. The Federal Reserve fought them in a secret international court at the Hague -- and lost. The Federal Reserve was ordered to pay out the debt as of September 11, 2001. They did not. We all know what did happen that day. What very few people knew, until now, was that all the Kuomintang gold was being stored under Building 7 at the World Trade Center. After the towers came down, the vaults were "mysteriously" found to be empty. The Kuomintang have been fighting ever since to get their gold back. The size and scope of such a "winner takes all" heist is truly extraordinary -- but something outrageous and unprecedented in any known laws of physics did happen that day. Susan Lindauer is now the highest-level, most credible witness to have added significant strength to the story that "9/11 was an inside job." The lawsuit Neil Keenan has filed on the Dragon Family's behalf could potentially break the whole story open before the eyes of the world -- and again, this lawsuit has the backing of a 122-nation alliance. I have written this investigation to help end the deadly silence -- so justice can be served. Ultimately, this is everyone's war -- not just those seeking to reclaim their stolen property.

THE BOXES WERE COVERED WITH ENGRAVED COPPER Before we go into more detail about the BIS and the open, provable aspects of the story, it's important to fill in a few more of the technical details about the bonds, the bond boxes and the bond chests. The 8.5x11-sized wooden bond boxes were faced and sealed with bronze-colored sheet metal -- for extra protection from the elements underground. The sheet metal on the boxes had elaborate, official engravings on every side. The engravings indicated that the bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve. They indicated which Federal Reserve bank, from which American city, had issued the bonds.

MORE ABOUT THE CHESTS Many of the larger chests, particularly in the 1934 series, held a total of 13 of these boxes. They did very much look like the classic "treasure chest." Twelve of the bond boxes inside these chests were about two and a half inches wide, as we said -- and the thirteenth was only half that width and was actually a "Book of Redemption", not containing bonds but rather instructions on how to redeem them. Each chest also contained a single, small cylindrical "Information Scroll" mounted in a clamp. All thirteen of the boxes fit neatly and snugly into the chest like a row of books. The chest was then also covered with engraved sheet metal. The engravings said the bonds were issued by a Federal Reserve bank from a given American city. The serial numbers of the bonds were listed, as well as the total value of everything in the box. Many of these 1934-series chests carried a written value of Three Trillion Dollars -- and a substantial number of them were produced. Each chest was padlocked shut for even further protection.

THE BONDS WERE NEVER MEANT TO BE USED IN THE "OPEN" ECONOMY Even though the Kuomintang had the option to reclaim their gold after 60 years, the bonds were never meant to be used as cash. The money was still expected to be held on deposit and used as collateral for the existing "open" currencies of the world. If the bonds were freed up and actually cashed, they could ruin the United States economy -- which had nowhere near as much money in it as the Federal Reserve had printed in the bonds. The whole idea was to keep the bonds on deposit -- as well as the gold they were issued against. The bonds represented how much value a given country held in the BIS system. We will explore the inner workings of this system in Section Five. Most importantly, the bonds, boxes and chests all contained deliberate, glaring errors in spelling and grammar. That way, if anyone did actually try to use them, the authorities would say they were "Fake". It is not clear whether the Asians and other foreign nations were aware of these deliberate errors or not. Probably some of them were, and some of them were not. Meanwhile, anyone who actually tried to cash the bonds would be lucky to escape from their plan alive.

HOW DID I KNOW ALL THIS? The reason why I know all this is rather convoluted, but compelling. In mid-December, once I knew what questions to ask, a top insider described to me what these bond boxes actually looked like. He had also toured some the vast facilities where the gold was held.

I then emailed Neil Keenan, the principal in this trillion-dollar lawsuit, with the information. Less than 15 minutes later, he sent me an avalanche of pictures that looked exactly the same as what I had just described -- even though he had never met my insider. Bear in mind that I'd already been in contact with Keenan for nearly three weeks by this point. There was no possible way he could have moved fast enough to create fakes that matched what my insider had just described. I never thought I was going to do this, but since there are already two other online sources that have leaked very similar images, here are some of the pictures Neil Keenan sent me.

NEIL KEENAN / DRAGON FAMILY PHOTOGRAPHS OF BONDS This is the world debut of these photographs -- exactly as they were sent to me, a mere 15 minutes after I wrote Neil and told him what my insider said they should look like. I was absolutely shocked at how perfectly they fit the description. Many of these images are larger than they appear, so you can save them to your computer and zoom in on them with various programs.

Is the $6 Trillion in Allegedly Fake 1934 US Bonds a Black Swan Event?

AGXIIK Speculates on Yesterday's Discovery of $6 Trillion in 1934 US Bonds

The $6 Trillion UST bond discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US government equal to that of the sub prime mortgages and CDS which is still in the process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value and has not run its course.

The fact that $6 Trillion in US bonds were found in Italy as well as the fact that the Mafia has by default become the largest 'bank' in Italy, loaning $140 billion in Italy, these bonds could easily be a form of organized crime's way to finance their operations. The Mafia has frequently resorted to counterfeiting currencies, most particularly US Dollars. Using treasury bonds as a currency would probably be easier since the bonds are the most trustworthy in the world. If they were laundered for 10% of their face value, these bonds could easily be used in scams such as the Nigerian Bank fraud we see so commonplace in our emails. Since that scam has run its course it would seem that offering USTs to unsuspecting dupes would add credibility to this fraud. The Nigerian bank scam nets $250 million a year.

Using USTs for currency, even if those in the know realize that they bonds are fakes, does not reduce the possibility that they could have value within these criminal systems. North Korea was for years, the focal point of counterfeit USD and those spent very well within the criminal cartel and banking systems that sponsored this funny money Add to this an HSBC check for $325,000 and the insider knowledge that HSBC is one of the tips of the drug cartel money laundering schemes, second only to B of A and its billions in drug money laundering, and you have the perfect recipe for the use of USTs as a counter currency to the real thing.

It would not surprise me that the threat to financial integrity of the US is deemed real (financial integrity being an oxymoron) since the US treasury and Federal reserve bank HATE competition, even if it a bond and not phony Benjamins flooding the system. Bond of the 'quality' noted in these situations do get the attention of the Secret Service. If enough phony bonds are introduced into the system, it could easily present a wedge to the value of these bonds, degrading and depreciating the face value of the bonds. If enough started floating around, even into the trillions, it could precipitate a crisis which would become severely inflationary as officials try to sort out the real from the phony bonds. The buyers of the real bonds issued by the UST would then have to wonder if they were buying the real thing. This could help undermine the reputation of the UST bonds, financial instruments which are under severe pressure today due to inflation and hypersonic currency printing.

We might even speculate that after the multi trillion dollar US Treasury hoard uncovered a few years ago, purportedly owned by the Dragon family and their legal claim to the entire US supply of gold, our government might be using this $6 trillion counterfeit bond fiasco to damage the Dragon Family's claims that are working through the courts.

If US Treasuries can be used to purchase Uranium, Plutonium, silver, gold or simply to aid and abet money laundering, this $6 trillion scam must scare the living bejesus out of TPTB.

Tyler Durden has weighed in on this matter with some uncorroborated accounts of the 1934 Mother Boxes that were shipping from the Chicago Fed. Durden also refers to the Divine Cosmos information. Maybe the Mafia was able to access these bonds, and they are real, and the syndicate is using them as real money , and they have uncovered the mother lode of bonds.

Now we could have $6 trillion of USTs floating around while the Secret Service is rushing to contain the damage to the fiscal integrity of the US government.

As the plot deepens, if the bonds ARE real and issued in 1934, maybe the larger tranche of the Dragon Family stash failed to surface ($154 billion vs $6 trillion), this could have massive repercussions to the FRN and treasury bonds, adding more ice and speed to the slippery down hill slope to ultimate currency debasement. - Exactly the sort of thing that the Dragon family has threatened.

For those who have seen the movies Margin Call and Too Big To Fail, you can see how multi trillion dollar financial fiascos can spiral out of control in a few short hours. This $6 Trillion UST bond discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US government equal to that of the sub prime mortgages and CDS which is still in the process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value and has not run its course.

If these bonds are real and given the history of government's proclivity to print to infinity using bonds, Weimar comes to my mind, then the international financial community is likely taking note and wants closure on this.

Thus the Italian police are diving into this matter since the Mafia may be one of the most destabilizing forces in Italy today And we know how badly things are going in Italy with currency controls, inflation, debt debasement, fire sale pricing of assets plus the age of assets available to pledge, it's just a matter of time before Italy defaults on its debts.

If the Mafia and others allied to its business model can replace a significant portion of the Italian financial market based on the extreme weakness of the Italian economy and fiscal realities, now that they are the largest bank in Italy, these bonds, not matter who THINKS they own them Dragon family or others, (Doc's Law--if you don't hold it you don't own it) the Mafia has the bonds and could put them into play quickly It will be interesting to see how this unfolds.

I brought this up in another post for a bad reason, but for those of you who only heard of the Italian case there.

Treasury has issued numerous scam reports on it, and insisted they have never issued bonds worth more than the face value. The major problem is that there are major misspellings in the bonds themselves, the coupons have never been cashed, and nobody knows exists ?.

Also, at least a third of the bonds have the names of newer treasures than they are dated for. And the trunks are strewn all over the eastern and western pacific.

The misspellings are an old British trick for plausible deniability, the coupons for the ones called scams have never been cashed, the trunks are fabulous pieces of craftsmanship. Everyone is trying to take em to Basel in Switzerland to cash them at the US Treasury Window.

The dating issue could easily be to backdate to before the financial regulations of the Depression prohibited such things. !

The coolest portion of the story actually goes back to the White Dragon clan of old china. Most comprehensive source is here. who are waiting for divine intervention to save us from our overlords. There have been some interviews with them.

Everyone that has tried to get a legal judgment has been indicted.

Also called the Morganthau bonds. Philippine bond forgery scam, San Diego treasury fraud , etc. etc.

Box History

ORIGIN OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE AND BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS The Federal Reserve began on December 23, 1913.

President Woodrow Wilson expressed grave concerns about the seriousness and the danger of what had just occurred -- the overthrow of the American economic system by a group of private bankers. The first major spark to begin World War I occurred the following June, when Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to the Austria-Hungary throne, was assassinated -- along with his wife. As we revealed in Section Two, World War One had been planned by Guiseppe Mazzini, the head of European Freemasonry, and Albert Pike, the head of American Freemasonry, back in 1871. Their plans were proudly displayed at the National Museum Library in London. In June 1914, Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated by a nationalistic member of a different country -- Serbia. Then, most likely thanks to press manipulation, the public was whipped up into a frenzy -- and they were told that this was an act of war. Assassinations are very easy to stage. That appears to have been a key part of how Pike and Mazzini's plan to start World War One was realized in practical terms. The outrage from this assassination spread throughout Europe. The controlled press in different countries most likely contributed by manipulating their people into taking sides. Germany quickly sided with Austria and Hungary. Germany then declared war on Serbia and her ally, Russia, seeking vengeance for the murder of Archduke Ferdinand.

IT SOON SPIRALED OUT OF CONTROL Germany's declaration of war was on August 1, 1914 -- and very soon afterwards, the whole world began spiraling out of control. Germany invaded Luxembourg, declared war on France and invaded Belgium to have an attack point against France. Britain declared war on Germany in defense -- and even Canada joined the fight. This all occurred in 1914, and the battle raged on until 1919 -- with several other countries getting drawn in along the way. Germany was crushed at the end of the war, and the Treaty of Versailles was drawn up to help rebuild their economy. By 1921, it was clear that nothing had really changed in the world. The rich still got richer, the poor still got poorer, and no one really "won" the Great War -- as it was called back then. Within the insider circles of the international community, much of the problem was blamed on the gold standard -for the reasons outlined in Adam Smith's The Wealth of Nations from 1776. The degree of atrocity that was suffered from the gold standard was sufficient to convince Emperor Hirohito of Japan to travel to the United Kingdom and sign a secret pact, in 1921, to create the Bank of International Settlements (BIS). The BIS was created by the founders of the Federal Reserve, which had started about seven years earlier. We will learn a lot more about them -- and read from their own official documents -- in Section Five. The BIS was intended to expand the powers of the Federal Reserve into a truly global reach... and it worked.

HIROHITO ACCEPTS THE PLAN TO START THE BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS

The plan Hirohito accepted was also secretly agreed to by several other nations in the 1920s. It took time, but a consensus was reached within less than a decade -- and they eventually went public about their new alliance. Whether voluntarily or involuntarily, all the most significant supplies of gold and silver in the world were turned over to the Federal Reserve and Bank of International Settlements and "blacklisted" -- that is, taken off-market. The idea was obviously not to destroy all the gold and treasure -- that would be a stupid and needless tragedy. Instead, the various leaders were told they merely had to put all their gold on deposit. Secret deposit. Everyone still got to keep their gold -- only the public would be told it was missing, or it had never existed in the first place. The Asians certainly hadn't gone public with how much they really had, so that whole story could be easily kept secret.

BONDS WERE ISSUED IN EXCHANGE FOR THE GOLD Each country that handed over its gold -- and / or had its gold forcibly taken -- was given certificates of deposit, or bonds, in exchange for what they gave up. The bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve, through their various banks in major cities of the United States. These bonds were considered to be as valuable and as redeemable as cash. The problem was that the Federal Reserve printed vastly, vastly, vastly more money in these bonds than existed in the open, honest economy -- trillions upon trillions of dollars' worth, beginning in the 1920s. Remember -- the amount of gold that actually existed was much greater than anyone could have ever imagined, since the Asians had kept it all very secret. Had the public found out how much gold there really was, it would have created a massive economic shock. Gold would have become practically worthless overnight. The world leaders needed to know that the gold they put on deposit was still worth its actual value in conventional dollars. Otherwise, they would be really pissed off about not getting "fair market value" for what they were "depositing" with the Federal Reserve.

EVERYTHING WAS PACKAGED VERY NICELY -- AND VERY SECURELY The bonds looked very sexy -- and had huge numbers on them. There were 100,000-dollar gold certificates, million-dollar gold certificates, 100-million-dollar bonds and even billion-dollar bonds. That's right. Single sheets of paper were allegedly worth a billion dollars in some cases. I am aware of how crazy this sounds, but the intel on this is very good -- including pictures that David and Mackie Hutzler may have given their lives for us to see. As an investigator, my job is to pass along the information to you. I cannot assume that I know everything, or that every piece of data is correct. However, when I have multiple, totally independent sources tell me the exact same things, I listen. Though there were several different types of storage containers, many of these bonds were put into 8.5x11-sized boxes carved out of a single piece of durable wood -- about two and a half inches deep, making them almost as big as a typical ream of 500 sheets of paper.

THEY NEEDED TO STAY SECURE FOR 60 YEARS The wooden boxes were then glued shut. That way, the bonds were much less likely to get moldy -- after being stored in a chest and buried underground in a secure location for 60 years. After the 60 years, the Asian countries were told they could dig up the chests, cash out the bonds and get their money back if they wanted to. According to Fulford, Keenan and other sources, in 1938, the Kuomintang dynasty in China sent seven battleships' worth of gold -- a staggering amount -- to the United States to protect against it being stolen by the Japanese. This is a key aspect of the trillion-dollar lawsuit we have been discussing. In response, the United States issued massive amounts of 1934-series Federal Reserve bonds -- carefully sealed in boxes, which were then sealed in locked chests -- and handed them back to China as collateral.

THE 60 YEARS WERE UP IN 1998 -- AND THE FEDERAL RESERVE LOST THE CASE In 1998, the 60 years were up. The Kuomintang had fled to Taiwan and were no longer the ruling party in China, but they still wanted their gold back. The Federal Reserve fought them in a secret international court at the Hague -- and lost. The Federal Reserve was ordered to pay out the debt as of September 11, 2001. They did not. We all know what did happen that day. What very few people knew, until now, was that all the Kuomintang gold was being stored under Building 7 at the World Trade Center. After the towers came down, the vaults were "mysteriously" found to be empty. The Kuomintang have been fighting ever since to get their gold back. The size and scope of such a "winner takes all" heist is truly extraordinary -- but something outrageous and unprecedented in any known laws of physics did happen that day. Susan Lindauer is now the highest-level, most credible witness to have added significant strength to the story that "9/11 was an inside job." The lawsuit Neil Keenan has filed on the Dragon Family's behalf could potentially break the whole story open before the eyes of the world -- and again, this lawsuit has the backing of a 122-nation alliance. I have written this investigation to help end the deadly silence -- so justice can be served. Ultimately, this is everyone's war -- not just those seeking to reclaim their stolen property.

THE BOXES WERE COVERED WITH ENGRAVED COPPER Before we go into more detail about the BIS and the open, provable aspects of the story, it's important to fill in a few more of the technical details about the bonds, the bond boxes and the bond chests. The 8.5x11-sized wooden bond boxes were faced and sealed with bronze-colored sheet metal -- for extra protection from the elements underground. The sheet metal on the boxes had elaborate, official engravings on every side. The engravings indicated that the bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve. They indicated which Federal Reserve bank, from which American city, had issued the bonds.

MORE ABOUT THE CHESTS Many of the larger chests, particularly in the 1934 series, held a total of 13 of these boxes. They did very much look like the classic "treasure chest." Twelve of the bond boxes inside these chests were about two and a half inches wide, as we said -- and the thirteenth was only half that width and was actually a "Book of Redemption", not containing bonds but rather instructions on how to redeem them. Each chest also contained a single, small cylindrical "Information Scroll" mounted in a clamp. All thirteen of the boxes fit neatly and snugly into the chest like a row of books. The chest was then also covered with engraved sheet metal. The engravings said the bonds were issued by a Federal Reserve bank from a given American city. The serial numbers of the bonds were listed, as well as the total value of everything in the box. Many of these 1934-series chests carried a written value of Three Trillion Dollars -- and a substantial number of them were produced. Each chest was padlocked shut for even further protection.

THE BONDS WERE NEVER MEANT TO BE USED IN THE "OPEN" ECONOMY Even though the Kuomintang had the option to reclaim their gold after 60 years, the bonds were never meant to be used as cash. The money was still expected to be held on deposit and used as collateral for the existing "open" currencies of the world. If the bonds were freed up and actually cashed, they could ruin the United States economy -- which had nowhere near as much money in it as the Federal Reserve had printed in the bonds. The whole idea was to keep the bonds on deposit -- as well as the gold they were issued against. The bonds represented how much value a given country held in the BIS system. We will explore the inner workings of this system in Section Five. Most importantly, the bonds, boxes and chests all contained deliberate, glaring errors in spelling and grammar. That way, if anyone did actually try to use them, the authorities would say they were "Fake". It is not clear whether the Asians and other foreign nations were aware of these deliberate errors or not. Probably some of them were, and some of them were not. Meanwhile, anyone who actually tried to cash the bonds would be lucky to escape from their plan alive.

HOW DID I KNOW ALL THIS? The reason why I know all this is rather convoluted, but compelling. In mid-December, once I knew what questions to ask, a top insider described to me what these bond boxes actually looked like. He had also toured some the vast facilities where the gold was held.

I then emailed Neil Keenan, the principal in this trillion-dollar lawsuit, with the information. Less than 15 minutes later, he sent me an avalanche of pictures that looked exactly the same as what I had just described -- even though he had never met my insider. Bear in mind that I'd already been in contact with Keenan for nearly three weeks by this point. There was no possible way he could have moved fast enough to create fakes that matched what my insider had just described. I never thought I was going to do this, but since there are already two other online sources that have leaked very similar images, here are some of the pictures Neil Keenan sent me.

NEIL KEENAN / DRAGON FAMILY PHOTOGRAPHS OF BONDS This is the world debut of these photographs -- exactly as they were sent to me, a mere 15 minutes after I wrote Neil and told him what my insider said they should look like. I was absolutely shocked at how perfectly they fit the description. Many of these images are larger than they appear, so you can save them to your computer and zoom in on them with various programs.

Is the $6 Trillion in Allegedly Fake 1934 US Bonds a Black Swan Event?

AGXIIK Speculates on Yesterday's Discovery of $6 Trillion in 1934 US Bonds

The $6 Trillion UST bond discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US government equal to that of the sub prime mortgages and CDS which is still in the process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value and has not run its course.

The fact that $6 Trillion in US bonds were found in Italy as well as the fact that the Mafia has by default become the largest 'bank' in Italy, loaning $140 billion in Italy, these bonds could easily be a form of organized crime's way to finance their operations. The Mafia has frequently resorted to counterfeiting currencies, most particularly US Dollars. Using treasury bonds as a currency would probably be easier since the bonds are the most trustworthy in the world. If they were laundered for 10% of their face value, these bonds could easily be used in scams such as the Nigerian Bank fraud we see so commonplace in our emails. Since that scam has run its course it would seem that offering USTs to unsuspecting dupes would add credibility to this fraud. The Nigerian bank scam nets $250 million a year.

Using USTs for currency, even if those in the know realize that they bonds are fakes, does not reduce the possibility that they could have value within these criminal systems. North Korea was for years, the focal point of counterfeit USD and those spent very well within the criminal cartel and banking systems that sponsored this funny money Add to this an HSBC check for $325,000 and the insider knowledge that HSBC is one of the tips of the drug cartel money laundering schemes, second only to B of A and its billions in drug money laundering, and you have the perfect recipe for the use of USTs as a counter currency to the real thing.

It would not surprise me that the threat to financial integrity of the US is deemed real (financial integrity being an oxymoron) since the US treasury and Federal reserve bank HATE competition, even if it a bond and not phony Benjamins flooding the system. Bond of the 'quality' noted in these situations do get the attention of the Secret Service. If enough phony bonds are introduced into the system, it could easily present a wedge to the value of these bonds, degrading and depreciating the face value of the bonds. If enough started floating around, even into the trillions, it could precipitate a crisis which would become severely inflationary as officials try to sort out the real from the phony bonds. The buyers of the real bonds issued by the UST would then have to wonder if they were buying the real thing. This could help undermine the reputation of the UST bonds, financial instruments which are under severe pressure today due to inflation and hypersonic currency printing.

We might even speculate that after the multi trillion dollar US Treasury hoard uncovered a few years ago, purportedly owned by the Dragon family and their legal claim to the entire US supply of gold, our government might be using this $6 trillion counterfeit bond fiasco to damage the Dragon Family's claims that are working through the courts.

If US Treasuries can be used to purchase Uranium, Plutonium, silver, gold or simply to aid and abet money laundering, this $6 trillion scam must scare the living bejesus out of TPTB.

Tyler Durden has weighed in on this matter with some uncorroborated accounts of the 1934 Mother Boxes that were shipping from the Chicago Fed. Durden also refers to the Divine Cosmos information. Maybe the Mafia was able to access these bonds, and they are real, and the syndicate is using them as real money , and they have uncovered the mother lode of bonds.

Now we could have $6 trillion of USTs floating around while the Secret Service is rushing to contain the damage to the fiscal integrity of the US government.

As the plot deepens, if the bonds ARE real and issued in 1934, maybe the larger tranche of the Dragon Family stash failed to surface ($154 billion vs $6 trillion), this could have massive repercussions to the FRN and treasury bonds, adding more ice and speed to the slippery down hill slope to ultimate currency debasement. - Exactly the sort of thing that the Dragon family has threatened.

For those who have seen the movies Margin Call and Too Big To Fail, you can see how multi trillion dollar financial fiascos can spiral out of control in a few short hours. This $6 Trillion UST bond discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US government equal to that of the sub prime mortgages and CDS which is still in the process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value and has not run its course.

If these bonds are real and given the history of government's proclivity to print to infinity using bonds, Weimar comes to my mind, then the international financial community is likely taking note and wants closure on this.

Thus the Italian police are diving into this matter since the Mafia may be one of the most destabilizing forces in Italy today And we know how badly things are going in Italy with currency controls, inflation, debt debasement, fire sale pricing of assets plus the age of assets available to pledge, it's just a matter of time before Italy defaults on its debts.

If the Mafia and others allied to its business model can replace a significant portion of the Italian financial market based on the extreme weakness of the Italian economy and fiscal realities, now that they are the largest bank in Italy, these bonds, not matter who THINKS they own them Dragon family or others, (Doc's Law--if you don't hold it you don't own it) the Mafia has the bonds and could put them into play quickly It will be interesting to see how this unfolds.

I brought this up in another post for a bad reason, but for those of you who only heard of the Italian case there.

Treasury has issued numerous scam reports on it, and insisted they have never issued bonds worth more than the face value. The major problem is that there are major misspellings in the bonds themselves, the coupons have never been cashed, and nobody knows exists ?.

Also, at least a third of the bonds have the names of newer treasures than they are dated for. And the trunks are strewn all over the eastern and western pacific.

The misspellings are an old British trick for plausible deniability, the coupons for the ones called scams have never been cashed, the trunks are fabulous pieces of craftsmanship. Everyone is trying to take em to Basel in Switzerland to cash them at the US Treasury Window.

The dating issue could easily be to backdate to before the financial regulations of the Depression prohibited such things.

The coolest portion of the story actually goes back to the White Dragon clan of old china. Most comprehensive source is here: <http://www.asianews.it/index.php?l=en&art=15456&size=A> who are waiting for divine intervention to save us from our overlords. There have been some interviews with them.

2.5 Trillion In Lost 1930's US Treasury Notes?

Naive Scam - Or Secret CIA Counterfeits?

By Tim Luckhurst

The Scotsman - UK

9-20-3

n dollars worth of United States Federal Reserve notes, dated 1934, bearing the signature of Franklin Delano Ro d to be protected by canisters of poisonous gas, does require explanation.

ged a naive scam, and the jury at Snaresbrook Crown Court in London this week believed them.

Yugoslav-born businessman from Canada, and Graham Halksworth, 69, a retired forensic scientist who once worked for the British intelligence service, were charged with a conspiracy of fraud and a conspiracy of conspiracy to defraud. Slamaj was also convicted of possessing fake bonds.

It was noticed when two men tried to cash £15.5 million of the notes at a Canadian bank. It was noticed that the word "dollars" was written instead of "dollars".

Slamaj was later charged with conspiracy to defraud after he asked a solicitor to help him sell £31 million of the bonds. Police later recovered documents with a face of a man in a suit and a box of deposit boxes.

Slamaj offered an alternative explanation for his possession of the bonds, one that just might be true and that delves into the Cold War era. He claimed that the bonds were part of a post-war crusade to destabilise communism.

The gold haul was recovered from the wreckage of a B29 bomber that crashed on the Filipino island of Mindanao in 1948.

Prof Aldrich, of Nottingham University and the co-editor of the journal Intelligence and National Security, was hired to investigate the claims. He concluded that the story is plausible enough for Slamaj to have believed it in good faith.

As the Chinese forces advanced through China in 1948, says Prof Aldrich, Britain and the US dreaded the prospect that one of the world's largest gold reserves - worth $83 billion at current prices - would fall into communist hands. So it was decided to extract the gold reserves from China and move them to the West.

The plan was to use B29 bombers for this bullion-rescue mission. Flying in B29 bombers decked out in the livery of its proprietary civilian airline, the US Air Force flew numerous missions to move huge shipments of gold from mainland China.

How did the Reserve notes have fitted into the operation? Prof Aldrich explains that they may have been used "for persuading the Chinese government to part with their vast stocks of gold".

erve notes to a value much greater than that of the gold they were intended to replace could have been an operation. They only had no intention of honouring them anyway.

Aldrich, the monetary instruments obtained by Slamaj may be intricate forgeries, but if they are, it is possible that These FRNs were part of the operation to extract gold from China. But there is absolutely no doubt that such a large sum of money was involved.

TREASURY BONDS

The most prevalent in the Far East recently surfaced in London when officers from the City of London Fraud Squad seized a haul of counterfeit US Treasury Bonds with a nominal value in excess of $2.5 trillion.

A haul of $2.5 trillion worth of these bonds was seized from a safe keeping vault of a bank in the City of London in an association with the Chinese government. Among the haul were a number of counterfeit Chinese Railway Bonds dating from the early part of the 1900s.

While Chinese Bonds have a collector's value of about £20 each, the faked US Treasury Bonds are well known to the US Secret Service and other intelligence agencies, in Hong Kong, Singapore, the Philippines, and Canada. Attempts have been made by fraudsters to use the bonds to raise money for the Chinese government.

on a number of people were arrested in the City of London after presenting billions of dollars worth of these bonds to obtain 'facilities'. Two women have been charged.

en by the fraudsters is that these bonds were printed by the CIA and given to Chiang Kai Shek who opposed China.

y goes, some were lost and were then found in caves/crashed aircraft/sunken submarines (take your pick) by illiterate natives in exchange for a few trinkets. The fraudsters have even attached details of a B17 bomber, its tail number and where it crashed in the rain forests of some distant tropical island.

ast have parted with huge sums of money to buy these bonds at 1¢ on the dollar. In June 2001, a US resident shot himself with the gun on himself after finding that these bonds, which he tried to cash at the US Bureau of Public Debt, were counterfeit.

Once opened, the box will contain the bonds (which have a peculiar creosote aroma), sometimes large and sometimes small, of anything from $100m - $1bn, a negative film roll and a supporting documents such as an international certificate of origin.

y Bonds are well presented, the fraudsters did not realise that the various Federal Reserve Banks have codes attached to them.

UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

INVESTIGATION RELEASE NO. 17057 , June 29, 2001

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION V. GARRY W.
STROUD, INDIVIDUALLY AND D/B/A DIAMOND GLOBAL
HOLDING TRUST, EURO CREDIT AND EXCHANGE BANK
P.C., AND ANGELIC INTERNATIONAL ; Case No.
CV-01-999 L, USDC, WESTERN DISTRICT OF
OKLAHOMA, OKLAHOMA CITY DIVISION

The United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") announced that on June 28, 2001, United States District Court Judge Lee R. West, issued emergency orders, including a temporary restraining order and asset freeze, against Garry W. Stroud, an alleged Internet investment swindler operating from British Columbia, Canada, and Lynden, Washington. The Commission's complaint charged Stroud with conducting an ongoing Internet investment scheme that fleeced over 2,200 investors worldwide of approximately $1 million since 1998. According to the Commission's complaint, Stroud, operating under several fraudulent businesses, used Internet websites and e-mail to solicit seven spurious investments, including so-called "Morgenthau Gold Bond Certificates," foreign gold-mining projects, and "prime-bank" trading programs, promising investors extraordinary returns with little or no risk. The complaint further alleged that these investments were, in every case, pure shams and that Stroud had not paid a single investor the promised returns. Stroud was assisted in the scheme, according to the complaint, by Adele Louros, whom it named as a relief defendant. Moreover, according to the complaint, Stroud targeted his fraudulent investment offerings mainly to investors who were recently defrauded in another investment scheme. That scheme, known as E-Biz Ventures, was the subject of a Commission enforcement action in January 2001 involving over 20,000 investors and over $9 million. SEC v. E-Biz Ventures, et. al, Lit. Rel. 16886, February 2001.

Harry W. Stroud, age 55, is a Canadian citizen residing in Aldergrove, British Columbia, Canada. Stroud operated several fictitious entities, including "Diamond Global Holding Trust," "Euro Credit and Exchange Bank Ltd.," and "Angelic International."

Adele Louros, age unknown, is a Canadian citizen residing in Montreal, Ontario, Canada. Louros is the named holder of several Internet payment accounts into which at least 100,000 of investor funds solicited by Stroud has been deposited. Louros is named in the lawsuit as a "relief defendant" solely for the purposes of equitable relief.

The Commission's complaint alleged that Stroud offered the following bogus investments:

The Angelic International Offering

Using the name Angelic International, Stroud offered an "international high yield trading" program in which investor money would purportedly double every 22-days. Individual victims invested as little as $100 or as much as $10,000. Although Angelic International had purportedly completed four or five 22-day investment "cycles," the program was a complete fabrication and never produced any returns to its investors.

The Morgenthau Gold Bond Offering

Stroud, operating as Euro Credit, offered a new "high yield investment program" involving trillion-dollar, "Morgenthau Gold Bond Certificates", purportedly issued by the United States government in 1934. Stroud called himself a "merchant/commercial" banker with access to numerous of the so-called Morgenthau bonds, which he claimed could be sold back to the government at a steep profit. Stroud claimed that investors who participated in the Morgenthau program could get a return of as much as 5:1 on [their] invested capital over 30 to 90 days" and that the investment was backed by "certificates of deposit by his Euro Credit bank. In fact, the orgenthau gold bonds did not exist.

the "China Project"

operating as Diamond Global, Stroud solicited investors in a supposed ongoing Chinese mining operation that extracted old "tailings" from previously abandoned Chinese gold mines. Stroud claimed that China had given Diamond Global the rights to the operation because China lacked the required technology to extract the gold from the tailings. Stroud "guaranteed" estimated returns exceeding $1 billion on the project and claimed that the "Bank of China" had extended financing to Diamond Global. Each of these claims was false and the mining operation did not exist.

the "Mexicali Project" at Diamond Global, Stroud claimed to own the rights to develop several gold mines in Mexico and that one of the mines had "proven" gold reserves of between $10 billion and $15 billion. Stroud was purportedly to use investor money to pay the combined cost of the mining operations and to share the profits with investors. In reality, there were no such mining operations.

the Diamond Global "Prime-Bank" Offerings

In addition to the prime-bank investment offered under Angelic International, Stroud offered three others under Diamond Global. Stroud called these offerings the Evergreen, Destiny, and Omega projects, promising investors incredible returns through mysterious, foreign "trading" or delayed roll-over" programs. In reality, these programs did not exist.

Stroud's various investment schemes came to the Commission's attention after he tendered a $9 million check to the United States District Court in the E-Biz litigation, purportedly to reimburse the E-biz investors. He wrote the check on an account at Euro Credit bank, which, as noted above, does not exist. Hence, the check bounced. In explaining away the bad check to E-Biz investors, Stroud claimed that he had simply withdrawn it because the Court said the Commission intended to steal some of the money. According to the Complaint, the Commission's follow-up investigation confirmed that Euro Credit was not a bank and that the check was bogus. The Commission alleged in its Complaint that Stroud's motive for tendering the $9 million check to the court in the E-Biz litigation was to obtain access to the E-Biz investors to pitch them on his own investments. In fact, a number of the victims in Stroud's investment schemes were also E-Biz investors.

In its lawsuit, the Commission has sought emergency orders:

) temporarily restraining and enjoining Stroud from continuing to violate the federal securities laws; (2) freezing of his assets and the assets of Louros derived from the scheme; (3) requiring Stroud and Louros to furnish accountings, (5) repatriating proceeds moved abroad; (6) prohibiting the destruction of documents; and (7) authorizing expedited discovery.

The Commission alleged that Stroud violated the following provisions of the federal securities laws: (1) the antifraud provisions, at Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act"), Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder; (2) and the registration provisions, at Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act. In addition to the emergency relief described above, the Commission is seeking preliminary and permanent injunctions restraining future violations of the foregoing provisions of the federal securities laws, an order requiring the defendant to disgorge all wrongfully obtained profits plus prejudgment interest, and civil penalties. The Commission is also seeking the disgorgement of fraudulent proceeds from the relief defendant.

THE FEDERAL RESERVE AND BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS The Federal Reserve began on December 23, 1913.

expressed grave concerns about the seriousness and the danger of what had just occurred -- the overthrow of the American economic system. A major spark to begin World War I occurred the following June, when Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to the Austria-Hungary throne, was killed in Sarajevo. It was revealed in Section Two, World War One had been planned by Guiseppe Mazzini, the head of European Freemasonry, and Albert Pike, the head of the Ku Klux Klan. Their plans were proudly displayed at the National Museum Library in London. In June 1914, Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated by a Serbian. Then, most likely thanks to press manipulation, the public was whipped up into a frenzy -- and they were told that this was an act of war. The events of 1914 were a key part of how Pike and Mazzini's plan to start World War One was realized in practical terms. The outrage from this assassination, controlled press in different countries most likely contributed by manipulating their people into taking sides. Germany quickly sided with Austria-Hungary, war on Serbia and her ally, Russia, seeking vengeance for the murder of Archduke Ferdinand.

THE GOLD STANDARD AND LOSS OF CONTROL Germany's declaration of war was on August 1, 1914 -- and very soon afterwards, the whole world began spiraling out of control. Germany attacked France on the Western Front and invaded Belgium to have an attack point against France. Britain declared war on Germany in defense -- and even Canada entered the war. The battle raged on until 1919 -- with several other countries getting drawn in along the way. Germany was crushed at the end of the war, and the world was left in a state of economic chaos. The war had killed their economy. By 1921, it was clear that nothing had really changed in the world. The rich still got richer, the poor still got poorer, and no one was held back then. Within the insider circles of the international community, much of the problem was blamed on the gold standard -- for the reason that it had been in place since 1776. The degree of atrocity that was suffered from the gold standard was sufficient to convince Emperor Hirohito of Japan to trade gold for silver in 1921, to create the Bank of International Settlements (BIS). The BIS was created by the founders of the Federal Reserve, which had started to plan for a world war more about them -- and read from their own official documents -- in Section Five. The BIS was intended to expand the powers of the Federal Reserve.

THE PLAN TO START THE BANK OF INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS

The plan was also secretly agreed to by several other nations in the 1920s. It took time, but a consensus was reached within less than a decade -- that the gold standard was a problem. Whether voluntarily or involuntarily, all the most significant supplies of gold and silver in the world were turned over to the Federal Reserve. The gold was "blacklisted" -- that is, taken off-market. The idea was obviously not to destroy all the gold and treasure -- that would be a stupid and needless move. They merely had to put all their gold on deposit. Secret deposit. Everyone still got to keep their gold -- only the public would be told it was on deposit. The Asians certainly hadn't gone public with how much they really had, so that whole story could be easily kept secret.

THE GOLD EXCHANGE FOR THE GOLD Each country that handed over its gold -- and / or had its gold forcibly taken -- was given certificates of deposit. The bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve, through their various banks in major cities of the United States. These bonds were used as cash. The problem was that the Federal Reserve printed vastly, vastly, vastly more money in these bonds than existed in the open, honest world, beginning in the 1920s. Remember -- the amount of gold that actually existed was much greater than anyone could have ever imagined. If the public found out how much gold there really was, it would have created a massive economic shock. Gold would have become practically worthless.

to know that the gold they put on deposit was still worth its actual value in conventional dollars. Otherwise, they would be really pissed off and they were "depositing" with the Federal Reserve.

PACKAGED VERY NICELY -- AND VERY SECURELY The bonds looked very sexy -- and had huge numbers on them. There were 100,000-dollar bonds, 100-million-dollar bonds and even billion-dollar bonds. That's right. Single sheets of paper were allegedly worth a billion dollars in some cases. The intel on this is very good -- including pictures that David and Mackie Hutzler may have given their lives for us to see. As an investigator, I cannot assume that I know everything, or that every piece of data is correct. However, when I have multiple, totally independent sources tell me the same thing, I believe them. There were several different types of storage containers, many of these bonds were put into 8.5x11-sized boxes carved out of a single piece of copper, making them almost as big as a typical ream of 500 sheets of paper.

VERY SECURE FOR 60 YEARS The wooden boxes were then glued shut. That way, the bonds were much less likely to get moldy -- after being in a secure location for 60 years. After the 60 years, the Asian countries were told they could dig up the chests, cash out the bonds and get their gold back. According to Mulford, Keenan and other sources, in 1938, the Kuomintang dynasty in China sent seven battleships' worth of gold -- a staggering amount -- stolen by the Japanese. This is a key aspect of the trillion-dollar lawsuit we have been discussing. In response, the United States issued massive gold bonds -- carefully sealed in boxes, which were then sealed in locked chests -- and handed them back to China as collateral.

THE GOLD WAS NOT IN THE FEDERAL RESERVE IN 1998 -- AND THE FEDERAL RESERVE LOST THE CASE In 1998, the 60 years were up. The Kuomintang had fled to Taiwan and wanted their gold back. The Federal Reserve fought them in a secret international court at the Hague -- and lost. The Federal Reserve won the case in 2001. They did not. We all know what did happen that day. What very few people knew, until now, was that all the Kuomintang gold was being held in the vaults. After the towers came down, the vaults were "mysteriously" found to be empty. The Kuomintang have been fighting ever since to get their gold back. The "one man takes all" heist is truly extraordinary -- but something outrageous and unprecedented in any known laws of physics did happen that day. The fact that the gold was there is a credible witness to have added significant strength to the story that "9/11 was an inside job." The lawsuit Neil Keenan has filed on the Dragonair case is the story open before the eyes of the world -- and again, this lawsuit has the backing of a 122-nation alliance. I have written this investigation for the public to see. It has served. Ultimately, this is everyone's war -- not just those seeking to reclaim their stolen property.

THE BONDS WERE COVERED WITH ENGRAVED COPPER Before we go into more detail about the BIS and the open, provable aspects of the story, it's important to understand the bonds, the bond boxes and the bond chests. The 8.5x11-sized wooden bond boxes were faced and sealed with bronze-colored sheet metal. The sheet metal on the boxes had elaborate, official engravings on every side. The engravings indicated that the bonds were issued by the Federal Reserve bank, from which American city, had issued the bonds.

The serial numbers for the bonds were also engraved into the sheet metal -- as well as the staggering value of the financial instruments inside.

THE BONDS WERE KEPT IN TREASURY CHESTS Many of the larger chests, particularly in the 1934 series, held a total of 13 of these boxes. They did very much look like the classic "treasure chests" that were about two and a half inches wide, as we said -- and the thirteenth was only half that width and was actually a "Book of Redemption" that explained how to redeem them. Each chest also contained a single, small cylindrical "Information Scroll" mounted in a clamp. All thirteen of the boxes were in a row of books. The chest was then also covered with engraved sheet metal. The engravings said the bonds were issued by a Federal Reserve bank. The numbers of the bonds were listed, as well as the total value of everything in the box. Many of these 1934-series chests carried a written value of the gold. Every one of them were produced. Each chest was padlocked shut for even further protection.

THE BONDS WERE NEVER MEANT TO BE USED IN THE "OPEN" ECONOMY Even though the Kuomintang had the option to reclaim their gold after 60 years, the gold was still expected to be held on deposit and used as collateral for the existing "open" currencies of the world. If the bonds were freed, it would be a disaster for the US economy -- which had nowhere near as much money in it as the Federal Reserve had printed in the bonds. The whole idea was to keep the gold out of the open economy. The bonds were issued against the gold. The bonds represented how much value a given country held in the BIS system. We will explore the inner workings of the BIS system. The bonds, boxes and chests all contained deliberate, glaring errors in spelling and grammar. That way, if anyone did actually try to use them, they would know that the Asians and other foreign nations were aware of these deliberate errors or not. Probably some of them were, and some of them were not. If anyone actually tried to cash the bonds would be lucky to escape from their plan alive.

THE GOLD WAS IN THE FEDERAL RESERVE The reason why I know all this is rather convoluted, but compelling. In mid-December, once I knew what questions to ask, a top insider at the Federal Reserve showed me the gold. He had also toured some the vast facilities where the gold was held.

...n, the principal in this trillion-dollar lawsuit, with the information. Less than 15 minutes later, he sent me an avalanche of pictures that looked like even though he had never met my insider. Bear in mind that I'd already been in contact with Keenan for nearly three weeks by this point. It was fast enough to create fakes that matched what my insider had just described. I never thought I was going to do this, but since there are already so many very similar images, here are some of the pictures Neil Keenan sent me.

ON FAMILY PHOTOGRAPHS OF BONDS This is the world debut of these photographs -- exactly as they were sent to me, a mere 15 minutes after they were taken. I said they should look like. I was absolutely shocked at how perfectly they fit the description. Many of these images are larger than they appear in on them with various programs.

Conclusion in Allegedly Fake 1934 US Bonds a Black Swan Event?

on Yesterday's Discovery of $6 Trillion in 1934 US Bonds

The $6 Trillion UST bond discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US sub prime mortgages and CDS which is still in the process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value in US bonds were found in Italy as well as the fact that the Mafia has by default become the largest 'bank' in Italy, loaning $140 billion a year in the form of organized crime's way to finance their operations. The Mafia has frequently resorted to counterfeiting currencies, most notably the Italian Lira. US bonds as a currency would probably be easier since the bonds are the most trustworthy in the world. If they were laundered for a few years they could easily be used in scams such as the Nigerian Bank fraud we see so commonplace in our emails. Since that scam has run its course, the Mafia collecting dupes would add credibility to this fraud. The Nigerian bank scam nets $250 million a year.

...y, even if those in the know realize that they bonds are fakes, does not reduce the possibility that they could have value within the system. For example, the focal point of counterfeit USD and those spent very well within the criminal cartel and banking systems that sponsored the cartel. The cartel paid for $325,000 and the insider knowledge that HSBC is one of the tips of the drug cartel money laundering schemes, second only to the cartel itself. Money laundering, and you have the perfect recipe for the use of USTs as a counter currency to the real thing.

that the threat to financial integrity of the US is deemed real (financial integrity being an oxymoron) since the US treasury and the Fed are not going to let the system collapse. If it is a bond and not phony Benjamins flooding the system. Bonds of the 'quality' noted in these situations do get the attention of the market. If a large amount of these bonds are introduced into the system, it could easily present a wedge to the value of these bonds, degrading and depreciating the face value. If the amount is large enough, even into the trillions, it could precipitate a crisis which would become severely inflationary as officials try to sort out the situation.

the real bonds issued by the UST would then have to wonder if they were buying the real thing. This could help undermine the real economy which are under severe pressure today due to inflation and hypersonic currency printing.

It is clear that after the multi trillion dollar US Treasury hoard uncovered a few years ago, purportedly owned by the Dragon family US supply of gold, our government might be using this $6 trillion counterfeit bond fiasco to damage the Dragon family through the courts.

Used to purchase Uranium, Plutonium, silver, gold or simply to aid and abet money laundering, this $6 trillion scam must scare the hell out of them.

It is clear from this matter with some uncorroborated accounts of the 1934 Mother Boxes that were shipping from the Chicago Fed. It is clear that the information Maybe the Mafia was able to access these bonds, and they are real, and the syndicate is using them as collateral for the mother lode of bonds.

With trillions of USTs floating around while the Secret Service is rushing to contain the damage to the fiscal integrity of the US government, it is clear that the bonds are real.

if the bonds ARE real and issued in 1934, maybe the larger tranche of the Dragon Family stash failed to surface and have massive repercussions to the FRN and treasury bonds, adding more ice and speed to the slippery downward slide of the debasement. - Exactly the sort of thing that the Dragon family has threatened.

In the movies Margin Call and Too Big To Fail, you can see how multi trillion dollar financial fiascos can spiral out of control in a matter of days. And the discovery (allegedly fake) could be a Black Swan event for the US government equal to that of the sub prime mortgage process of costing us $25 trillion in lost wealth and fiscal value and has not run its course.

And given the history of government's proclivity to print to infinity using bonds, Weimar comes to my mind, then the international community is taking note and wants closure on this.

We are diving into this matter since the Mafia may be one of the most destabilizing forces in Italy today And we know how badly this will hurt the economy, inflation, debt debasement, fire sale pricing of assets plus the age of assets available to pledge, it's just a matter of time before Italy collapses.

Bankitalia, allied to its business model can replace a significant portion of the Italian financial market based on the extreme weakness of the Italian government. If they are the largest bank in Italy, these bonds, not matter who THINKS they own them Dragon family or others, (Doc's Law--if you own it, you control it) has the bonds and could put them into play quickly It will be interesting to see how this unfolds.

I brought this up in another post for a bad reason, but for those of you who only heard of the Italian case, there.

Treasury has issued numerous scam reports on it, and insisted they have never issued bonds worth more than the face value. The major problem is that there are major misspellings in the bonds themselves, the coupons have never been cashed in, and why anyone would forge something that nobody knows exists ?.

Also, at least a third of the bonds have the names of newer treasures than they are dated for.

And the trunks are strewn all over the eastern and western pacific.

The misspellings are an old British trick for plausible deniability, the coupons for the ones called scams have never been cashed in, the trunks are fabulous pieces of craftsmanship. Everyone is trying to take em to Basel in Switzerland to cash them in the US Treasury Window.

The dating issue could easily be to backdate to before the financial regulations of the Depression prohibited such things.

The coolest portion of the story actually goes back to the White Dragon clan of old china. Most comprehensible to those who are waiting for divine intervention to save us from our overlords. There have been some interviews with

The lawsuit that could end the gangster rule of Western civilization

The lawsuit that could end the gangster rule of Western civilization

November 24th, 2011

A lawsuit was filed today (November 23rd US time) that could end the secret government that has ruled Western civilization for at least the past 300 years. The lawsuit claims that close to $1 trillion was stolen by, among others, UN Secretary General Ban Ki Moon and the UN, former Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi and the Italian government, Giancarlo Bruno and the Davos World Economic forum and others believed to include many of the owners of the US Federal Reserve Board. The lawsuit was filed in New York by Neil Keenan, acting as representative of the Dragon family, a reclusive group of wealthy Asian families. This filing is the result of extensive evidence gathering by international police and law-enforcement agencies including Interpol, the CIA, the Japanese Security Police, Eastern European secret services and has the backing of the Pentagon as well as the armed forces of Russia and China.

The ultimate defendants in this legal action are believed to be the same cabal behind the assassination of US President John F. Kennedy and many other major international crimes.

This particular lawsuit was triggered by the illegal detainment of two Japanese citizens, Akihiko Yamaguchi and Mitsuyoshi Watanabe, as well as the seizure of $134.5 billion in bonds they were holding in Italy on June 3, 2009. After the bonds were stolen, self-described 33rd degree Freemason Leo Zagami contacted this writer and said the Montecarlo P2 masonic lodge could cash the bonds with the help of Vatican banker Daniel Dal Bosco. This writer forwarded the information, via a member of the UK Royal family, to the dragon family who entrusted a further $1 trillion worth of similar bonds to the plaintiff Neil Keenan. Keenan then, after much negotiation, entrusted the bonds to Dal Bosco.

Dal Bosco subsequently absconded with the bonds and was followed 24-hours a day by various intelligence service agents to see what he would do with them. The Dal Bosco trail led to the Davos World forum, the UN, the Italian government and the Vatican, among other places. Following this, Keenan was approached by a whoâs who of powerful figures including top Vatican officials, Wall Street bankers, European nobles and former US presidents, most offering him astronomical bribes to go away. He was also poisoned with ricin and nearly killed.

According to Keenan âThe roots of this case go back to between 1927 and 1938, when, under arrangements made between T.V. Soong (Finance Minister of China) and Henry Morgenthau, Secretary of the Treasury, The United States Government purchased some 50 million ounces of silver and leased vast amounts of gold from the Nationalist Chinese Government, known as Kuomintang. For all the treasure handed in, certificates were given to those who surrendered their precious metals.â

Many of the bonds seized by Dal Bosco are backed with the Chinese gold taken by the Federal Reserve Board during those years and never returned to its legal owners.

Other bonds seized were Kennedy bonds. These bonds were backed by gold held in trust for the people of the planet and were supposed to be used to finance the economic development of the world. Instead they have mostly been stolen and misused by members of the cabal that has seized control of the Western financial system on behalf of private interests.

The original signatory to the Kennedy bonds was former Indonesian President Soekarno. Soekarnoâs heir Dr. Seno Edy Soekanto has given Keenan power of attorney to return to their rightful owners the Kennedy bonds and other property allocated to the people of the world via something known as the global collateral accounts.

The lawsuit is only the first salvo in a legal battle to restore control of the global financial system to the people and governments of the world as well as the rightful owners of historical assets that have been seized by members of the banking cartel.

The lawsuit has been filed as Civil Action #8500 at the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on November 23, 2011.

Background information on the problems with the global financial system

By Neil Keenan and Keith Scott.

The entire cause of the problem.

The United States is a private corporation owned by the British Crown (Rothchilds), the Bank of England (Rothchilds) and the Vatican (Rothchilds again). It was previously called the Virginia Company until 3/9/33 when it was dissolved by Roosevelt under the Emergency Banking Act. On 5/5/33 Congress elected to dissolve the Gold Standard and Sovereign Authority of the U.S. and all of its official capacities including government offices, departments and officers. The U.S. is a corporation, not a nation. The Federal Reserve is neither Federal, nor a Reserve. It is a private counterfeiting organization run by Jewish bankers who lend the money they print out of thin air at interest while we keep on paying these criminals to fleece the People.

That technology of theft and deception that has been exported from the United States through their promotion of this fraud as the paradigm of global finance is an obscenity that has set the seeds of its own destruction.

This has been compounded by the refusal of ordinary people to realize, know and understand that it is the duplicity of Governments and the deceit and endless greed of bankers that combined to simply fleece them like the apathetic sheep they are. Apathy and ignorance of the truth, creates belief in the lie. The truth is self-evident, but most people choose to neither hear it nor understand it. The debts of the Federal Reserve are the debts of a private corporation that is robbing the people of the United States.

The United States Dollar is a Federal Reserve Note and the obligations against the currency are the obligations of the Federal Reserve, not the people of the United States.

Understanding the History

1. Between 1927 and 1938, under arrangements made between T.V. Soong (Finance Minister of China) and Henry Morgenthau, Secretary of the Treasury, The United States Government purchased some 50 million ounces of silver and leased vast amounts of gold from the Nationalist Chinese Government, known as Kuomintang. During this period China was partly occupied by Japanese troops and there was the fear of China being overrun by the Japanese.
2. For all the treasure handed in, certificates were given to those who surrendered their precious metals. The surrendered precious metals and gemstones were sent to the United States under a lease agreement made between T.V. Soong and Henry Morgenthau. The Certificates became the underlying funds of the Kuomintang and were good and accepted securities.
3. In 1934 a new Securities Act was promulgated in the United States, together with the Gold Act, which required all bullion gold and gold coin to be surrendered to the Federal Reserve, a private corporation chartered to operate as the Central Bank of the United States and to be the issuer of the currency known as the United States Dollar.
4. Domestically owned gold was purchased. Foreign Gold held by the Treasury was also surrendered to the Federal Reserve, so, was leased to the Federal Reserve. This began the series 1934 Notes issued by the Federal Reserve. These have never been redeemed and the interest cost was met by further issuances of the 1934 series FRNs.
5. These 1934 FRNs guarantee the lease payments and to allow the Chinese Government to continue financially. These came under the control of the Kuomintang, the Nationalist Government in China from whom the Gold had been received. Many were left in China when the Kuomintang had to flee to Taiwan. The Gold had been nationalized by the Kuomintang who moved much of the FRNs (but not all) to Taiwan which was built on these notes. These Notes were the underlying wealth of Taiwan and they were good for value as they were backed by gold.
6. During the war in China, most owners of the depository notes issued by Chinese Banks were killed by the Japanese, others later being killed by both the Kuomintang and the Chinese Communists, thus the Gold became property of the Nation, especially so, the Kuomintang. In Europe, Jews who had owned wealth were stripped of that wealth through various means and were then eliminated. The gold was taken either by stealth or by force, that is a reality of history.
7. The Kuomintang appointed guardians of this Gold and the securities issued by the United States; they are euphemistically known as the Dragon Family. The Dragon Family is in fact an organization that operates between old families within China and Taiwan, and as such is above the political divide of the two independent Chinese Governments. Chinese are remarkable in this regard, that old family ties and functions supercede political arrangements which, though they might last for generations, are regarded as inconsequential over the passage of time to most Chinese. Attached to this is the wealth of several nations. The United States in support of the Kuomintang and resistance groups actually printed more of these FRN notes inside China itself. These operations were run by the CIA to buy loyalty of various factions in the fight against the communists, eventually being driven out into Burma around 1960. Largely due to the additional printing of these notes, the additional Notes were given in lieu of interest, but directed to specific persons and parties.

8 At the end of the World War II, with Communist and Kuomintang factions at war in China, the International Community and the Chinese assented to the Gold being placed under the overt control of Indonesian President Soekarno. Soekarno then, on August 17, 1945, came to be known as M1 under United Nations Approval No. MISA 81704 âOperation Heavy Freedom. This was because much of the world's gold had been delivered into Indonesia and the Philippines. Canada, Australia, Great Britain, India and other British Colonies sent their gold to the so called âimpregnable Singaporeâ The Japanese, as per the arrangements agreed to by Hirohito in the 1921 Pact Between Nations made in London, delivered much of this gold to Indonesia (Then a Dutch Colony) and to Philippines (Then a US Colony) into secret bunkers that had been mostly constructed by the Japanese between 1924 and 1945. This is why the Allied troops in Malaya had no air cover or sufficient supplies to that would have allowed them to resist the Japanese. Singapore had to fall so most of the global wealth could be âlostâ into a secret system that made the gold standard redundant and fiat currencies a reality.

This gold was documented into accounts through the Swiss Commercial Bank Union Bank of Switzerland, placed under protection of the Swiss Attorney General, registered through the Swiss National Bank into the Bank for International Settlements International Collateral Combined accounts and then from within the BIS, blocked to form the Institutional Parent Registration Accounts of the Federal Reserve System.

Later President Marcos of the Philippines was appointed and held the position of M1 until 1987 and then the position was transferred to Dr. Ray C. Dam, in October of 1987, under Legal Decadency to Heir RCD1087 Far East Entire with formal Power of Attorney and Assignment of Indonesian Assets signed by Sarinah Soetiwi (holder of the assets on behalf of the Nation of Indonesia as assigned by President Soekarno) in 1992, Dam's authority later promulgated January 20, 1995. Dam proved to be impossible for the entire system to work with, (either because he refused to allow those who placed him in authority to steal, or because of his personal arroganceâ. Difficult to know which is correct) and his authority over the Institutional parent registration Accounts set aside and the system reverted to the three Nations who had controlled these accounts since World war II, United States, Great Britain and France, who systematically and illegally subverted the established system since 1996.

9. From this we can see that there are two functional operations. One was ownership and Depository control by the owners of the Gold and the other a control system set in place to administer and control the Collateral Combined Accounts as an independent Arbiter. Ownership rights are held by the signatory to the Depository Accounts in Commercial Banks and Control Rights have been held by M1.

10. So it was, that the entire world supply of bullion and coinage gold was withdrawn and fiat currencies became the order of the day. However, underneath the notes and money issued by the Federal Reserve was the underlying wealth within a centralized system that Nations was intended to be used equitably, but Bankers determined they would use to raid national economies.

11. In 1963, President John F. Kennedy entered into an Agreement with President Soekarno to provide the funds to allow the United States Treasury to print its own currency, thus subverting the ârightâ to print the currency held by the Federal Reserve. The Agreement would have transferred some 59,000 tons of gold to underpin this currency. The problem with this was that the US domestic currency would have then been backed by gold which would have been a violation of international agreements meant to stabilize currencies. 11 days after signing this agreement, President Kennedy was assassinated. President Johnson then suspended EO11110 as issued by Kennedy and transferred the bullion to the Federal Reserve. The Green Hilton Agreement was not implemented until 1968 when Soekarno fell from office and when Global Trade made it imperative that the world have a Global Currency. As the Gold had been transferred to the US Treasury in 1968, a series of Bonds known as Kennedy Bonds were issued in order to honor the terms of the Green Hilton Agreement made between Kennedy and Soekarno, the 1968 terms of the gold delivery to the United States being different than made in 1934. When after 30 years, interest had not been paid as promised, a reissue of the bonds in an increased number were issued as commemorative notes and were accepted by the owners of the Gold, the Dragon Family.

12. From copies of Bank documents received by Neil Keenan, within the Green Hilton Memorial Agreement, the funds the amounts of gold and platinum are specified. These amounts of gold are certificated and the certificates and ledger copies with full and exact identification and recognition codes are available. These certificates are further proven by the bank reports, copies of which are now held by Neil Keenan. The truth of these instruments can be vigorously defended through documentation in our hands and further through interrogation of the Black Screens where the off ledger collateral is held, together with an interrogation of the grey and blue screens where we will find enormous fraud from the illegal use of these assets.

13. In the few documents we present with this complaint we can see that the assets have been deposited, the counter-assets created and presented to the depositors, the depositors have been cheated for over 70 years through the intentional and fraudulent failure of the Obligor to honor the Agreements.

14. In recent weeks we have come into possession of the books and records of the late President Soekarno, and all the codes and ledgers of the Global Accounts. The size of these accounts can be seen by reviewing the Collective Agreement between the Garuda Memorial Hilton Indonesia and the Green Memorial Hilton Geneva, established, structured and made operational between 1961 and final signature in 1972. Under this Agreement the assets of the international collateral combined were established and brought forward, then, within a short period of time misused to change the operating systems of banks.

15. Reviewing these books, we can now see that Banks set aside the notion of operating under the Charters they hold as banks, instead of being Banks they became like very poor casino operators and traders, selling what they do not own. The records in our possession, signed and registered by the receiving and managing commercial bank, show the underlying funds in numbers and amounts that stagger the imagination. The Green Hilton and Garuda Memorial Agreements demonstrate clearly the value of the global account system.

a) Gold and Platinum Deposits ran into millions of tons.

b) 1934 series Federal Reserve System Bonds, Notes issued in 1928, Kennedy Bonds ran into Quadrillions of US Dollars, Dragon Bonds are all recorded and acknowledged within the Green Hilton and Memorial Hilton Collective Agreements. Both Assets in the form of Bullion surrendered to the Global Accounts through the United States Government and then entrusted to a private corporation, the Federal Reserve System.

Bizarre Claim for $1 Trillion

By DAN MCCUE

ShareThis

MANHATTAN (CN) - An American expatriate in Bulgaria claims the United Nations, the World Economic Forum, the Office of International Treasury Control and the Italian government conspired with a host of others to steal more than $1.1 trillion in financial instruments intended to support humanitarian purposes.

The 111-page federal complaint involves a range of entities common to conspiracy theorists, including the Vatican Illuminati, the Masons, the "Trilateral Trillennium Tripartite Gold Commission," and the U.S. Federal Reserve.

Plaintiff Neil Keenan claims he was entrusted in 2009 with the financial instruments - which included U.S. Federal Reserve notes worth $124.5 billion, two Japanese government bonds with a combined face value of $19 billion, and one U.S. "Kennedy" bond with a face value of $1 billion - by an entity called the Dragon Family, which is a group of several wealthy and secretive Asian families.

"The Dragon family abstains from public view and knowledge, but, upon information and belief, acts for the good and better benefit of the world in constant coordination with higher levels of global financial organizations, in particular, the Federal Reserve System," Keenan claims.

"During the course of its existence over the last century, the Dragon family has accumulated great wealth by having provided the Federal Reserve Bank and the United States Government with asset assignments of gold and silver via certain accounts held in Switzerland, for which it has received consideration in the form of a variety of Notes, Bonds and Certificates such as those described ... that are an obligation of the Federal Reserve System."

Keenan says that with accrued interest the instruments are now worth more than $1 trillion. He says the family designated him as its principal in an effort to select certain registered and authorized Private Placement Investment Programs (PPPs) for the benefit of unspecified global humanitarian efforts.

In his remarkable complaint, Keenan claims that the U.S. government enormous amounts of money - delivered in gold and other precious metals - from the Dragon Family many years ago, and that the money was placed into the Federal Reserve System for the benefit and underwriting support of the dollar, "which was to become and currently remains the global reserve currency".

Keenan claims the conspiracy began with the illegal detention of two Japanese citizens, Akihiko Yamaguchi and Mitsuyoshi Watanabe, and the seizure of $134.5 billion in bonds they were holding in Italy, in June 2009.

Yamaguchi can best be described as Keenan's predecessor in trying to place Dragon Family instruments in legitimate PPPs to advance the group's humanitarian aims, according to the complaint.

Keenan says he came to know both Yamaguchi and the Dragon Family through the Japanese man's efforts on the group's behalf, and that he introduced them to a bank in Cyprus with which they could do business.

Keenan says that in gratitude, Yamaguchi sought and was granted approval to execute a special power of attorney, whereby Keenan would also act on behalf of the Dragon Family to place their assets in PPPs.

It was then, he says, that he took possession of the instruments that are the heart of the lawsuit. For his assistance, Keenan says, he was to receive a profit share amounting to 30 percent of any particular PPP he arranged.

A month after the Japanese men were detained, a man named Leo Zagami, "a self-described 33rd degree Free Mason, who, as of April 2008, had reportedly claimed to be the leader of a breakaway faction of the Knights of Templar and high-level Freemasons centered around the elite of the Masons P2 (propaganda Due) Lodge in Monte Carlo," arrived on the scene, according to the complaint. (Parentheses in complaint.)

Zagami claimed to be a representative of the Vatican Illuminati and other European sect societies and "had been looking to make contact with certain Asian Secret Societies," the complaint states.

During a meeting in Japan, he says, he told a contact that Yamaguchi and Watanabe had been "set up" and that he had inside information about the seized instruments.

Subsequently, he introduced his contact in Japan to defendant Daniele Dal Bosco, a Vatican banker and associate of the P2 Masonic Lodge, who "would be able to 'cash the bonds seized by the Italian Treasury Police,'" according to the complaint.

The complaint alleges a complicated history with many moving parts and scores of internationally known and unknown characters, the sum of which is that Keenan claims he was entrusted with billions of dollars in bonds by the Dragon Family.

He claims that soon, he and Dal Bosco were in daily contact via Skype and they arranged to meet in Italy. During these conversations, Dal Bosco represented that he was not only financial advisor to Zagami, but also to the Vatican, Vatican City, Rome, and the treasurer for the P2 Masonic Lodge.

As a result, Keenan said, although he tried keep personal possession of the financial instruments with which he was entrusted, he nevertheless came to trust Dal Bosco, and turned the bonds over to him for "temporary safekeeping and custodianship".

Dal Bosco absconded with the bonds and sought assistance in selling the instruments "in the global marketplace through stealth, conversion and bribery," Keenan claims.

He claims that as the conspiracy continued to unfold, various high level officials repeatedly offered him a bribe of $100 million to "release" the instruments without disclosing their theft to the Dragon family, and to allow the instruments to be converted to a so-called UN "Sovereign Program" wholly under the auspices, protection and umbrella of the sovereign immunity enjoyed by the defendants.

Other defendants include UN General Secretary Ban Ki-Moon, Former Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi, Giancarlo Bruno, who is identified as head of the banking industry for the World Economic Forum, Italy's ambassador to the UN Cesare Maria Ragaflini, Ray C. Dam, president of the Office of International Treasury Control, and David A. Sale, the deputy chief of the council for the cabinet of the OITC.

Keenan seeks the return of the stolen instruments, punitive damages and court costs on multiple claims of fraud, breach of contract and violation of international law.

He is represented by William H. Mulligan Jr., with Bleakley, Platt & Schmidt of White Plains, N.Y.

IS THERE ANY QUESTION WHY I, AS THE AUTHOR, HAVE BEEN WARNED ON MANY OCCASIONS BY SEVERAL PEOPLE THAT (THEY) MIGHT ACTUALLY KILL ME IF I CONTINUED IN MY ATTEMPT TO DO THIS? PLEASE BE AWARE OF THE FACT, THAT ALTHOUGH THE PHILIPPINES MUST BE CONSIDERED AS THE BIRTHPLACE OF PERHAPS THE LARGEST CANCER OF GREED EVER DISCRIBED. THE STORY TOLD IN THIS SERIES OF BOOKS IS BY FAR NOT SIMPLY A STORY ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES, OR PHILIPPINE PEOPLE. NOR IS IT A STORY IN REALITY, AS TO WHEATHER A MAN'S ESTATE HAS BEEN STOLEN. BUT RATHER A STORY OF HOW THIS CANCER HAS EFFECTED AND IS STILL EFFECTING THE LIVES OF MOST EVERY SINGLE LIVING HUMAN HERE ON THIS EARTH.

If you have taken the time to read this entire set of pages on this Web Site, along with the partial list of players and people involved in this total story, you might now better understand why we feel we must present and sell these books in a series. Because, we feel that the reader must make this total mental journey with us in order to finally understand the truth.

About Quote:

Source: This quote was said by Theodore Roosevelt in his address at the opening of the Jamestown Exposition on April 26, 1907, as reported in Presidential addresses and state papers (1910).

Complete Sentence: It behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves, then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing that they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of the power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest.

This same principle is applicable to our homes, farms, schools, hospitals, highways, bridges, airports, waterways, and other Tax Payer, Bond payers, Hospital Bond Tax Payers, Toll Road Bond Tax Payers, Airport Bond Tax Payers, etc, etc, etc which was sold off by President Clinton Order 12803. This same principle is applicable to those who illegally 'securitized' Gold Property 'Certified, Owned, Held' by V.K. Durham Held in Docket 12087. See: <http://www.theantechamber.net/Vk2009/DocumentationValidation.htm>

This same principle is applicable to the Identity Theft of US Fed. See: GORELICK MEMO + SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIAL <http://www.theantechamber.net/UsHistory>

This is the same principle applied when the issues brought up in Public Notice http://www.theantechamber.net/V_K_Durham/VkPublicNotice

Rather than having me attempting to explain how this "Money Laundering" and property theft Black Ops works in the Criminal Banking Industries the following quote from a recent situation involving the 'Fed. Bailout of the auto industry, to wit:

SNIP: Typically, once they lend money to a buyer, they sell the loan, get the cash upfront, then pump the proceeds back into the business as loans called commercial paper that keeps the day-to-day business afloat.

The crash cut the circuit, raising the chances the automakers couldn't make loans to buyers and keep selling new vehicles. That's where the Fed stepped in. In normal circumstances, the Fed only lends money to banks, leaving the decisions about who should borrow when the financial markets started to collapse in late 2008, the Fed set up several programs to lend money directly to banks, an unusual step.

SOURCE: Ford, BMW, Toyota Took Secret Government

Money <http://jalopnik.com/5704575/ford-bmw-toyota-took-secret-government-money>

Under the Glass Steagall Act the requirement for banks worked on 20% Gold Reserves in the banks and 80%.. 'for commercial paper was sold, it was discounted by the Fed's .45%. This gave them the 'cushions' needed to keep lending.

But some of the 'banking players' got greedy. These were the affiliated CONTRA ARMS FOR DRUGS, ARMS FOR DRUGS, ARMS FOR DRUGS 'banks' were enjoying the operating ABOVE CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT while the Diplomatic Immunity members operated under Treaties international agreements other than treaties.. called TIAS, such as Tias 12087.

TIAS 12087, Done in Washington November 19, 1984 Entered into Force March 24, 1986. See Note by US Department of State, bottom, click Right Arrow.. and continue reading The Multilateral Agreement http://www.theantechamber.net/VkDocuments/Tias12087/Tias12087_1.html

Unfortunately the Treaty international agreements other than treaties Section 12087 "Inter-American Development Bank

Development Corporation were allowed to indulge in IDENTITY THEFT of US CORPORATION BANKS, reg the State of Nevada then proceed on their merry way with OITC and "High Powered Associates" operating under "Do Not Investigate Criminal Activity" issued by Department of Justice Deputy Jamie Gorelick..

This was known as Bank Act No. Two.. The Bank Act No. One also known as the Breton Woods Agreement was Bank/IMF-GATT of the Breton Woods Agreement to rebuild war torn Europe to which there were 145 Original became THE UN's WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION.

The Original Purpose and Intent of the Breton Woods Agreement-World Bank-IMF-GATT [General Agreement] defined in the first TEN Sections which was to guarantee "Equal Parity" and "Non Interference with Sovereignty"

9/22/06. The Original Purpose and Intent of the UN/Bretton Woods Agreement-World Bank-IMF-GATT was broken to be interfered with and placed in "Jeopardy" and "Harms Way." 118 NATIONS PULL AWAY FROM THE UN THREATENED TO BE BOMBED BACK TO STONE AGE, BANKERS & LEADERS MURDERED, OVERTHROWN CONSTITUTION, DISMANTLING OF STATES, VOTING IN THE "NEW STATES CONSTITUTION"

The 118 Nations which pulled away from the UN were Sovereign Nations who had entered into THE BRETON WOODS AGREEMENT-GATT-IMF which was drafted by England's Keynesians during WWII and before the ink was dry Surrender... The Breton Woods Agreement was on the table for the Nations of the Civilized world to sign.. 145 Nations signed the Breton Woods Agreement in Haiti in 1947. Those nations have increased to 175 subscribing Nations. 118 have withdrawn called the "Non Aligned Nations."

Why did those 118 Nations withdraw? Those 118 Nations withdrew due to the arbitrary changing the original purpose of GATT (General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs) by simply changing the words which prohibited certain acts to a word which would allow these third world nations to be willfully, maliciously abused by those such as the Corporate HOLDING TRUST "held as Retired" Corporation fraudulently incorporated by those associated with the Al Qaeda Identity Theft of U.S. Fed. Corporations such as contained in the LIST of the LAUNDRY FACILITY known as the BOYS CLUB (see:

represented by such Political Prominents as Tom Delay, Jack Abramoff and 80,000 additional Lobbyist who have the Powers of Offices of Public Trust of those who sit in offices alleging to represent WE the People.

The 118 Nations withdrew from the United Nations because of the increasing heavy handedness of the Administration of the United States, and The 118 Nations withdrew from the United Nations due to the Breach of the Original Purpose and Intent of the Four Sections of the Original International Monetary Fund Agreement (Breton Woods-GATT-IMF 1947) which violated the Sovereignty of Nations in Direct Opposition of the Original Purpose and Intent of this Agreement.

These 118 Nations withdrew because THE WHITE HOUSE INVOLVEMENT with flooding their nations with MONEY & CERTIFICATES printed from the U.S. TREASURY PLATES sent to Russia which can be read at <http://www.sweetliberty.org/issues/wars/jordan/12.html> , and U.S. TREASURY PLATES were also sent to General Chiang Ki Shek..

These families concerned in these documents of Ambassador Wanta and Vice President Cheney, are the "families of the Wealthy Nations who underwrite the UNITED NATIONS which the 118 Nations withdrew from the 175 UN Subsidies International Monetary Fund, GATT and the old Breton Woods Agreement.

In furtherance...The Equal Parity Guarantee to these 118 now unaligned nations became subjected to the heavy hand of the before mentioned agreement has been violated by the Rich Nations..as these 57 nations had subscribed to the FOREIGN RELATIONS, GEORGE H.W. BUSH, WILLIAM J. CLINTON and now the present occupants of the White House in destruction of the banking systems of these nations by allowing hundreds of trillions of dollars in Counterfeit money to be 'sold' and 'joint ventured' in their 'third world nations and nations economies' only to find out when the DUE DATE of the U.S. Treasury would deny the legitimacy of those instruments which the Federal Reserve and U.S. Treasury 'guaranteed' must be done off shore" and they would split "50%-50%" the gold and other profits from this Counterfeit operation in their own PUBLIC NOTICE at

Richard Millhaus Nixon as President of the United States was removed from office for this 'wannabe' a King acting delusional he went so far as to have Palace Guard Uniforms made for the units guarding the White House..

It was Nixon's Administration that allowed THE TROJAN HORSE (Manchurian Candidate Syndrome) when Nixon and my husband obtained the invitation from China's Premier for Nixon to come to China) and Spiro Agnew as the Vice President doing 'business' and cutting deals which were connected with the Iranians and the transactions went through the

This Nixon/Agnew "Manchurian Candidate/Trojan Horse" has persisted to the present time and I have written about it. I posted the articles on TheAnteChamber which can be read at http://www.theantechamber.net/V_K_Durham/TwoSteppingWolfowitz.htm .

When reading the article connect the dots between Nixon/Agnew and the Greek-Iranian Banking and cutting deals with the Investment Association, Hellenic Express International and The Inter-American Development Corporation along with the Inter-American Development Bank by the Al Qaeda. When you connect the dots on that..then look at the US Treasury incorporated by the

Al Qaeda which would keep them outside Congressional Purview.. See:

<http://www.theantechamber.net/VkDocuments/Tias12087/Tias12087Index.html>

there are 29+ pages which you should copy off and study.. and you will find the incorporation of the U.S. Fed. C the Nevada Corporations Commissioner.

I am told: The "New States Constitution" is again being submitted to the U.S. House of Representatives and to be voted on this weekend along with some idiotic idea that Executive Orders are to be voted on whereas they will become law.

Pursuant to the Constitutional Rule of Law and Cases standing in Res Judicata regarding Executive Orders.. Executive Orders are not Law. This can be found in Constitutional Ruling Case Law. Supplement II.

WE the People do not 'vote' for Kings.. Our Constitution forbids this nation to be ruled by "Kings" and run by THIEVES and Corporations... That is what the Declaration of Independence was about..and it was spelled out in the Rights To Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness in the Declaration of Independence. Pull it up..and study it.. and you best do it now..

Back several years ago the U.S. House passed an Act of Congress which forbid the CIA and other U.S. Operatives from "interfering with the leaders of other nations" and so forth..

CNN.com - Pakistan: U.S. threatened to bomb us back to Stone Age - Sep 21, 2006

<http://www.cnn.com/2006/POLITICS/09/21/pakistan.threat.ap/index.html>

Snip: In July 1944, during World War II, economist John Maynard Keynes of England, and Harry Dexter White of the United States organized the United Nations Monetary and Financial Conference (or Bretton Woods Conference) in Bretton Woods, New Hampshire. It was there that they worked out a plan for stabilizing the world economy. The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade was signed; and the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (World Bank) and International Monetary Fund were established.

In the early 1960s, the American economy began declining, and the international situation became unbalanced as the Vietnam War escalated. President Nixon announced a new economic policy. The dollar was devalued, and its convertibility to gold was suspended. There was a 90-day wage price freeze, stimulative tax and spending cuts, and placed a temporary 10% tariff on most U.S. imports. Japan and Western Europe were asked to remove their trade barriers, in order to give the United States more access to them; and Japan, South Korea, Hong Kong, and Taiwan were asked to decrease the flow of goods and textiles into the country. These moves offered relief to the country's economic woes. It was clear that Nixon was retreating from the global policies which were formulated during the 1960s.

Note: This brought about another "Treaty international agreements other than treaties" which gave 'access' to the U.S. market. Vice Versa for those 'subscribing nations.' This allowed for the old game of "Which SHELL has the PEA hidden in it?" and this was called A SHELL GAME.

I

What BANK could cause a Nation to be threatened "to be bombed back to the stone age?"

Another Investigator Writes: Re: #4: THE REASON FOR "CONTRACTS" ON 127 HEADS

It appears that Mr. E.J. EKKER and his ground crew are indeed on the ground, all hiding under their separate beds.

OK, so now we have found that the Executive Vice-President of Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) is also a STRAW-MAN having his name listed "as President" for over 10 years in the State of Nevada, while I found five (5) more additional registrations that He was also listed as the President of various corporations. 51) The name of the corporation is INCFASST NEVADA, INC> registered 4/10/2002 and ID NUMBER is C8901234567890. REVOKED on 5/1/2005 = dead horse. And No 52) is HUNTCON INTERNATIONAL, INC> registered on 7/2/2002 and ID NUMBER is C8901234567890.

[Gold Plated Tungsten]

The ground crew start looking for their cult leader, but He is not in that poker room, as they did not want EKKER has nothing to play with except his pecker. It is too bad that Cenon Marcos was not available as there was some research that came from Malaysia Government as they had asked some serious questions and SAMCO people did questions, so they said that the expert perhaps could be Cenon Marcos, but when some people tried to contact him did not know where he was or how anyone could contact him. Maybe they called Ekker's phones by mistake and Marcos to obtain any new employment as EKKER wants to make Cenon Marcos crawl back on his knees to kiss Chairman Ekker. I for one was impressed with the work and search as I know what Cenon must have done to dig to come up with the complications of land-title and old court records and then dealing with Hacienda ilipina and the ROYAL CROWN of ENGLAND etc. <http://www.rumormillnews.com/cgi-bin/archive.cgi/noframes/read/11>

"The Largest Theft In The History of Mankind"

The books & documents they don't want printed or exposed

Based on over 14 years of research and gathering of documents

YOU BE THE JUDGE AS TO THE TRUTH

What is this book that a leading New York publishing house told the author's agent in the spring of 1996, "We really wanted to publish and distribute the book "The Golden Karat", but it's simply too hot to handle?"

Is freedom of the press dead in America if one tries to write & present documents that exposes the misdeeds of the super rich & powerful?

Where did a great part of the money come from for such projects as unauthorized secret wars & a large office complex just outside Washington D.C. built for the CIA that even the U.S. press admitted was unknown to the U.S. Congress?

Who was this mystery man Severino Garcia Sta. Romana

(pronounced Santa Romana), who was also known as Jose Antonio Diaz? Some say that he was affiliated with General Douglas MacArthur & Major General Edward G. Landsdale during and at the end of World War II. It's said that they helped to continue to promote an organization that still today actually controls the worlds of international banking and politics even right here in the United States.

What is the truth behind the Japanese spoils of war known as the Yamashita Treasure? Did it actually exist? If so, what happened to it?

What is the truth regarding the downfall of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines? (It sure doesn't appear as though it was any people power revolution.) & what is the alleged common denominator between this act & the assassination of John F. Kennedy?

Why as late as the spring of 1996, after being in effect for over 20 years, was there an action instituted in the New York courts to dislodge the rights and authority of the late Sta. Romana's widow? A movement that was spearheaded by a former U.S. Security & Exchange Commissioner & allegedly high-ranking members within the government of Fidel Ramos of the Philippines?

Why after President George Bush was defeated in his bid for re-election as President of the United States was it announced that he had taken a position with Citibank of New York and a Canadian Gold Cartel? What service was President Bush asked to perform? (Since Citibank is one of the principal banks who is alleged to have connived with Ferdinand Marcos & others, including members within the U.S. Government in stealing billions of dollars from the late Sta. Romana/Diaz's estate in cash and gold bullion was President Bush asked to handle the sale of this gold? If, not why unlike all of our other former presidents, is his pension as President, CIA Director & years of public service not enough?

What will be the position of the newly elected government in the Philippines of Joseph Estrada regarding the truth and the justice that they can contribute in this matter? Or is it just going to be more of the same regarding kowtowing to special interest groups inside and outside of the Philippines, while at the same time, as in the past, is it also going to be just a continued effort of trying to fill personal pockets?

Why has the author been warned on several occasions that his life would be in danger if he continued to try and tell this story or publish this book?

Many who have read this book say that it is one of the most interesting & informative books that they have ever read.

One nation-wide syndicated radio talk show host refers to it as the book of the century and says it's a must read for anyone wanting to know the truth.

These are just a few of the questions now answered in a four volume series of 500 plus page each books which the author has named "The Golden Karat Series".

It took the author over 14 years of his life, and at a great personal expenses to now be able to answer and document not only the above mentioned questions for the world to understand, but many other hidden secrets as well.

Although the so-called printing establishment who depends on the large banking institutions will not print these books and documents of proof. (As one leading well known U.S. publishing firm told the authors literary agent, "Many of us liked and wanted to do the book 'The Golden Karat', but it was decided that it was simply too hot to handle".

Does this not bring on another very important question that most Americans at least should asked, "Is freedom if the press now dead in America, if one attempts to write, document and expose the misdeeds of the Super Rich and Powerful? But, the author, being an old fashion American who believes in right and wrong says that there is more than one way to skin a rabbit. Therefore, since spending a lifetime in marketing various products worldwide the author decided to print and self market these books and documents himself so as to allow the world to at least have the opportunity to know the truth. However, the Internet method marketing concept is something that is knew to him, he nevertheless believes that selling books is no different than selling any other product that people would like to have. And since this story has and still is today effects most everyone's lives worldwide, that the big task is to simply let millions around the world know about this and then tell them how they can purchase this very unusual set of documented books. Note: These books are also in the process of being translated also into the Japanese language. Because, the Japanese did play a big role in the events described and documented in this now 4 volume book series.

The Banks and Institutions involved

The Countries involved.

IS THERE ANY QUESTION WHY I, AS THE AUTHOR, HAVE BEEN WARNED ON MANY OCCASIONS BY SEVERAL PEOPLE THAT (THEY) MIGHT ACTUALLY KILL ME IF I CONTINUED IN MY ATTEMPT TO DO THIS? PLEASE BE AWARE OF THE FACT, THAT ALTHOUGH THE PHILIPPINES MUST BE CONSIDERED AS THE BIRTHPLACE OF PERHAPS THE LARGEST CANCER OF GREED EVER DISCRIBED. THE STORY TOLD IN THIS SERIES OF BOOKS IS BY FAR NOT SIMPLY A STORY ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES, OR PHILIPPINE PEOPLE. NOR IS IT A STORY IN REALITY, AS TO WHEATHER A MAN'S ESTATE HAS BEEN STOLEN. YOU BE THE JUDGE AS TO THE TRUTH

What is this book that a leading New York publishing house told the author's agent in the spring of 1996, "We really wanted to publish and distribute the book "The Golden Karat", but it's simply too hot to handle?"

Is freedom of the press dead in America if one tries to write & present documents that exposes the misdeeds of the super rich & powerful?

Where did a great part of the money come from for such projects as unauthorized secret wars & a large office complex just outside Washington D.C. built for the CIA that even the U.S. press admitted was unknown to the U.S. Congress?

Who was this mystery man Severino Garcia Sta. Romana

(pronounced Santa Romana), who was also known as Jose Antonio Diaz? Some say that he was affiliated with General Douglas MacArthur & Major General Edward G. Landsdale during and at the end of World War II. It's said that they helped to continue to promote an organization that still today actually controls the worlds of international banking and politics even right here in the United States.

What is the truth behind the Japanese spoils of war known as the Yamashita Treasure? Did it actually exist? If so, what happened to it?

What is the truth regarding the downfall of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines? (It sure doesn't appear as though it was any people power revolution.) & what is the alleged common denominator between this act & the assassination of John F. Kennedy?

Why as late as the spring of 1996, after being in effect for over 20 years, was there an action instituted in the New York courts to dislodge the rights and authority of the late Sta. Romana's widow? President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907

“We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen.

As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest.”

[President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

HUNT BROS CORNER SILVER MARKET

The story of what would become known as Silver Thursday began in the early 1970s. The principal players would be Bunker, Herbert, and Lamar Hunt, sons of the legendary oil wildcatter H. L. Hunt.

The senior Hunt was a fervent apostle of extreme right-wing views, believing that Calvin Coolidge had been the last good President and that succeeding administrations had left the country "susceptible to Communism." For a time, H. L. Hunt was possibly the richest man in America. Like many wildcatters, H. L. was an inveterate gambler, a trait his sons seemed to inherit. They also inherited his political opinions, viewing modern democratic governments as "welfare states" that would ineluctably debase the currency (that is, create inflation).

Believing that only "hard" assets provided protection against government-induced inflation, the Hunt brothers took an interest in silver, which they were convinced was cheap relative to the other traditional metallic standard of value, gold. By the mid-1970s they were confirmed "silver bugs." Believing in an almost messianic vision of an inflationary Armageddon, they were not interested in playing the silver market merely to capture moderate profits from small swings in the price, like most silver traders. They had far bigger objectives in mind. Backed by an inherited fortune variously estimated to have been between US$6 billion and $14 billion, the Hunts entered the silver market like rampaging bulls in the proverbial china shop.

While the Hunts to this day deny it, most observers believe that the brothers' objective was to "corner" the market in silver. The effect of such a corner would be to squeeze the many commercial interests and other speculators who would in the normal course of business have sold silver short. Once the Hunts controlled the available supply of the metal, they could then force the "shorts" to come to them to buy back the metal they were short, at prices set by the Hunts.

The commodities futures markets provided an excellent vehicle for the Hunts' machinations. A "futures contract" is simply a transaction entered into by a buyer and a seller that will be consummated ("settled") at a specified date in the future. On that date, the seller is obligated to deliver to the buyer a stipulated amount of the commodity in question, unless the seller has reversed his position in the futures market by buying back a like contract for delivery on the same date.

The advantage to the Hunts (and other market participants) is that until the actual settlement date, the buyers and sellers are only required to put up a minimal margin (typically totaling 5%) of the value of the contract, and to post additional "maintenance margin" if the price of the contract moves against them in the market.

The Hunts poured their billions into silver. By January 1980, the Commodity Futures Trading Corporation (the regulatory body supervising the commodities markets) became alarmed, estimating that the Hunts and their allies controlled contracts for 77% of all the privately held silver in the world. The regulators increased margin requirements, but this only made matters worse; the shorts were forced to come up with tens of millions of dollars to meet their obligations under the new rules. Silver prices spurted higher, incredibly breaking through $50 per ounce on January 21, 1980, up from about $9 per ounce only six months earlier.

Finally the regulators and the commodities exchanges took draconian action to forestall disaster. Rules were imposed arbitrarily to prevent further buying of silver by the Hunts or anyone other than legitimate industrial users and shorts who were buying back silver they had previously sold. The Hunts were trapped; they could not buy, and there was no one to sell to.

By March 1980, silver had declined to the point where the Hunts, despite having inherited a multibillion-dollar fortune, actually began to run short of money. In addition to their huge hoard of silver, they had accumulated large stockholdings in such companies as Columbia Pictures, Global Marine, First National Bank of Chicago, and the brokerage firm through which they directed much of their business, Bache, Halsey, Stuart, Shields. As the price of silver fell (along with the prices of many of their stockholdings), they were continually required to put up more margin. They had exhausted much of their available credit, and the very high interest rates prevailing in early 1980 made their existing credit lines extremely expensive.

On March 14 they were hit with a body blow from an unexpected source. The Federal Reserve took another step in its efforts to squeeze out the inflationary forces the Hunts feared. A policy of "special credit restraint" was announced, under which member banks were advised in no uncertain terms to cease providing loans to finance speculative activity.

Technically this program was voluntary, but few banks were prepared to openly resist it. It was generally assumed that the Fed was specifically targeting the Hunts; whatever the case, the effect of the new policy on the brothers was devastating. They could expect to borrow no more money from U.S. banks to meet future margin requirements.

The price of silver continued to slide, and the Hunts, for the first time, found themselves unable to meet their margin calls. Bache, Halsey, Stuart, Shields put up some of the money for them, but even this additional margin was quickly consumed by falling prices. Worse still, Bache itself was now placed in a precarious financial position. Even though the Hunt brothers still possessed substantial assets that were not encumbered by loans, those assets were illiquid and could not be sold easily to raise cash. Because of Federal Reserve policy, banks would not lend to them. The day of reckoning had finally arrived. Herbert Hunt offered a sobering assessment of what would occur if silver continued to plummet. He said simply, "All the Hunt family will be washed out. We will go broke."

The panic spread to the stock market, where rumors flew that Bache and several other firms connected with the Hunts' commodity speculation, including Merrill Lynch, might fail. Unable to raise enough money by selling silver, Bache dumped blocks of stock the Hunts had also posted as collateral for their loans, exacerbating the stock market drop. On March 27, dubbed Silver Thursday (reminiscent of Black Tuesday in 1929), the stock market decline degenerated into a rout.

Then suddenly the market reversed itself. Much as had occurred in 1962 at the bottom of the May "crash," a stunning rally in stock prices erased most of the day's losses. There was no news or action by any government or private entity that could explain the abrupt reversal. In coming years, critics of the "efficient market" hypothesis would cite examples of unexplained volatility such as this as proof that the stock market was not truly efficient.

The silver market also stabilized, enabling Bache to unload some of the metal it had taken from the Hunts as collateral for loans. In the short term, disaster was averted, but it had been a very near thing. Bache and several smaller dealers had barely survived.

The Golden Karat

The Alleged Largest Theft and Cover-up in the Entire History of Mankind

Events and actions that have and still are today affecting the lives of millions of people worldwide.

Now you can judge the truth for yourself. "Tis strange to know how little one knows, in order to truly know how little they know".

In the late 1990's when the author attempted to publish the first book in this now three volume series of books, he and his attorney were both told by their appointed literary agent at the time, "I'm in total shock, because I just received a telephone call from my friend in New York who was talking the 3 million advance with us for the publishing rights of the Golden Karat, and he just said to me, that many in his firm wanted to publish the book, but it was finally decided that it was simply too hot to handle". Therefore, must one not ask:

Is freedom of the press now dead in America, if one tries to expose the misdeeds of the Super Rich and Powerful?

What is the real truth and story behind not only World War II, but also Vietnam and the current Middle East and the Philippine problems today? Have we now opened a can of worms that will not be too easy to seal, without it costing the lives of possibly hundreds of millions world wide, including in the once good old U.S.A. ?

(Is not the same old game of war for money in full swing once again?)

What truly is the background and reasons for all of this?

(One must know the true history, in order to properly judge the present).

If all of this is true, then how have and still are not only the average Americans, but also most people around the world paying for all of this, and at what cost?

Did these Japanese spoils of war known today as the Yamashita Treasure ever truly exist?

If so, what happened to it?

If at one time this was not true, then why did the newly formed United Nations at the end of World War II, extend their World War II "Spoils of War Act" an extra 10 years beyond the first act, concerning this only?

Where did this almost unbelievable amount of reported wealth consisting of precious metals, jewels and wealth come from?

Who was this mystery man (legally known as) Severino Garcia Sta. Romana and Jose Antonio Diaz?

(Pronounced "Santa Romana"?)

There seems to be enough supporting evidence to establish the fact that he truly existed. There also seems to be enough documented evidence and first hand testimony that at his death in 1977, that he owned or at least controlled - reportedly over:

One Trillion - Eight Hundred Billion U.S. dollars in cash or precious metal deposited in banks and financial institutions worldwide.

(Sounds impossible we know).

But don't be too quick to disregard this or the reported amounts involved. Because, there is now available a great deal of what appears to be authentic documented confirmations that many of the larger Banking and Financial Institutions, as well as various Government Agencies, who have been involved in trying (Reportedly even under the banner within the Government of the United States of it being a National Security Issue". While reportedly at the same time certain elements within the U.S. Government have been busy attempting to cover-up what has already and is still taking place. While their bidders continue in attempting to claim as large of a part of this wealth as they can manage to still take for themselves or their secret worldwide projects. (Serious charges we realize if true. However, the Golden Karat Series of books are only reporting what we were told during our investigations and by who told us certain things, especially if we have more than one source of confirmation. (Also, if there are documents that back-up what was told to us, we also include them for our readers review.

For an example: Why did one former U.S. Senator reportedly say, "If you can find the true legal heirs of the late Severino Sta. Romana, there's a fortune to be made from this. Because, the single largest theft and cover-up in the entire history of mankind has and still is going on right here in Washington D.C."

What was the late Sta. Romana's special relations with General's Douglas MacArthur & Edward G. Landsdale during World War II and the years immediately following the war?

What is the story regarding a secret organization controlled by a chosen few whose policy is to control the world's wealth, then you can control the world of politics and thusly the entire world?

Does such an organization truly exist?

Even certain highly thought of Ministers in the Seventh Day Adventist Church seem to have the courage to stand up and claim that indeed it does.

What if any was the late Sta. Romana's role in such an organization? Also, what was his reported role regarding being one of the founding fathers of the U.S. CIA, and what was his reported involvement in both of these situations?

What was the alleged personal relationship that existed between General Douglas MacArthur and the final commanding General of the Japanese occupying forces in the Philippines General Yamashita before, during, and right after the Japanese surrender to U.S. Forces near the final end of World War II?

There sure seems to be at least a partly documented history of this.

Did this play any role on what is going on today?

Was General Yamashita truly put to death under the direction of General MacArthur at the end of the Philippine campaign? Or was he as reported by some given a new identity, personal wealth, and allowed to live out his life in luxury in exile, while another devoted Kamikaze type in the Japanese army at the time, was given money for his family and was put to death for the benefit of the world press in his place?

Reports taken from people involved at the time. However, you as a reader must indeed judge this one for yourself. Although we feel that it may indeed be a very vital part of the entire story, we also found that it was almost impossible to be able to show documented proof, unlike most of the other serious topics contained in our books.

What is the true claimed connection and relationship between Madame Imelda Marcos and the late Sta. Romana/Diaz?

(If what is alleged and claimed is indeed true, and if true justice had ever been administered, then there would seem to be no way that her and her own biological children could have ever be justifiably accused in the past, or could ever be properly accused in the future of taking any ill-gotten wealth from anyone. (Sadly, at-times people are ill-advised by those money hungry people they trust, or they have simply forgotten the age-old adage that the simple truth will-set one free).

What is the truth regarding the assignation of Ninoy Aquino at the Manila International Airport?

What seems to be the real truth regarding the much published "Golden Buddha Case", where a Hawaiian Judge issued a multi- billion dollar judgment against the estate of the late Ferdinand Marcos?

What were the late Sta. Romana's duly documented widow's stories concerning all of the above, along with her stories of personal visits with her late husband to see the Queen of England and Prince Philip in London. Or her comments regarding a personal visit with her late husband to Japan, and once there being a house guest for several days of the late Emperor Hirohito in the Imperial Palace in Tokyo. This coupled along with her stories of their associations with many other well known figures around the world before his death?

(Written and repeated as actually word for word as possible to write).

If basically all of this is true, and there seems to be enough solid confirmations, testimony and documents furnished from many of the original people involved as to what truly has and still is happening up until this very day regarding many of these reported events and to this fortune. Then, what basically has this wealth been used for?

What is the true reason for the downfall of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines?

It seems for sure it "Was Not" the much proclaimed and publicized so-called "People's Power Revolution".

Therefore, what is seemingly the true details and true story behind this action and why?

What is the common interwoven connecting denominator between this act and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy of the United States?

Here again, there sure seems to be one.

Why has the general attitude changed today in the Philippines regarding the late Ferdinand Marcos?

The answer is obviously simple: Because of what they have gotten since.

Why were we able to confirm the transfer of millions of dollars in originally deposited funds in then what was named First National City Bank - New York, to now what is known as "Citibank" in the Bahamas and worldwide? Who had the right to authorize these transfers?

Why on one occasion during a meeting with a leading bank officer in what was then known as the Union Bank of Switzerland whose main office located in Zurich Switzerland (Now called United Bank of Switzerland) attended by the author, another American witness, and Mrs. Luz Sta. Romana. Why after Mrs. Sta. Romana and had given this bank officer her late husband's master account number in their bank did this bank officer reply?

"This is a correct account number issued by our bank Mrs. Sta. Romana, and I can now that it is what I thought it might be when Author here first suggested this meeting. But, I wouldn't suggested that you try to claim the assets it represents, at least not while you are personally in Switzerland." (These remarks caused Mrs. Sta. Romana to reply, "Why not? Because, when my late husband put his assets here, he sure didn't agree to give it to U.B.S.")

This statement and question caused the U.B.S. bank officer to laugh. He then replied,

"Of course not. But, since you are a personal friend of my friend here, I feel I must warn and tell you that before the bank, or even the Government of Switzerland would allow you to do this and attempt to take it out of Switzerland, they are not beyond having you killed first".

Re: Philippines..anyone heard about Jim Brown on treasures part 2

Note: For all I hold holy and respect, I the author of this Web Page and the Golden Karat Series of books without any doubt heard this warning myself". But had we not heard practically the same warning regarding the Jewish survivors of World War II, themselves and their relatives relating to deposits by them or their families. (Of course, Mrs. Sta. Romana didn't have any organized group to fight for her just rights as they finally did.

All she had were a group of totally undeserving rascals obtaining false Filipino passports, or other made up documents and inserting their names as Sta. Romana. Plus in many absolutely provable cases paying some local Filipino judge to issue court orders in their favors, and even worse, more powerful interest also seeking undeserving amounts of this estate simply by (with the cooperation of crooked bankers and others covering up and changing the original records and facts. (This issue more than anything else, despite the huge amounts involved is what turns this entire story into the worldwide event that it is. Note: Some say this is by-gone history. But It's far from that. Also, for this reason alone, it for sure makes it's long past time, that at least a sincere effort and attempt is made at trying to tell the world this side of the story, along with any seemingly documents that would appear to support it. (Let the readers judge the truth for themselves).

Why was the late Sta. Romana's widow (Luz Rombano Sta. Roman) and the first fully documented person ever appointed by both the Philippine and New York Courts as the principal heir and administrator of her late husband's estate (Severino Garcia Sta. Romana/aka Jose Antonio Diaz), court order attempted to be dismissed in the late 1990's? (After being on record for over 15 years) This attempt involved a former member of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and reported high ranking members at the time in the then Fidel Ramos Government in the Philippines?

Why have over 16 former and present day Heads of States, along with many of the leading figures in well known World Banks and Financial Institution names continued to come up in 15 years of gathering documents and investigations into all of this?

What was the late Sta. Romana's role in helping Henry Kissinger and President Richard Nixon in being able to institute more or less what one might call normal diplomatic relations for the first time since the end of World War II between Mainland China and and the United States of America?

(This for sure has been confirmed by several different sources).

What is Mrs. Sta. Romana's story regarding her personal conversation, (as she put it), "When Richard Nixon finally got over his crying jag in San Clemente, California and moved back to New York City".

What also was not only her late husband's relationship, but hers as well with the late Bill Casey, the Director of the CIA when he died?

What also is the story behind her claim of speaking directly with President George Bush while he was still President of the United States about her problems?

I the author was not personally present during either of these alleged conversations with President Bush. But, others did confirm to me that they were present when the conversation with the White House and President Bush took place. I also later on wrote to President Bush relating to what I was told that Bush promised and told her. But, I never got a reply from Bush, nor from any of his staff as later I did when I also wrote to other prominent political figures in Washington D.C. (They for the most part at first at least acknowledge my inquiries, until they finally realized what was behind and going on regarding what I was writing about).

In view of this, and what we do know for sure, Would this not cause anyone's eye-brows to rise slightly, when one read after being defeated for a second term as President of the United States, when the newspapers carried reports of how our former President had taken a position with Citibank in New York, and later some Canadian gold cartel?

(Was his retirement payment not enough? And whose gold was he interested in concerning the Canadian Gold Cartel?).

Note However: At least President Bush was not openly advocating a "New World Movement". He was only expounding in his rhetoric to describe, (even perhaps with the purest and best intentions his part and beliefs in his words as, "A New World Order". Note Two: For the life of me, I'm not trying to personally put President Bush or perhaps his beliefs down. After all, as an American, I still believe that those are his prerogatives, President, x-President or not. However, I'm still old fashioned enough of an American to believe that others, including me should have at least the same right to express our personal viewpoints as well. I also believe we Americans should have the right to write the results of what we have investigated and been told without any threats or worries of someone killing one who attempts to do this.

It is reported by Mrs. Sta. Romana that her late husband had his first gold bullion account put in his name when he was only 8 years of age (around 1916). So, where did this gold come from?

It's for sure that this at least could not be any part of any World War II spoils of war. But it sure appears as though most everything he owned has been stolen since his death.

What was the late Sta. Romana's relation and personal friendship with the Rockefeller family in New York, especially Winthrop before he died?

What is the truth and story behind the late Sta. Romana depositing over 3300 metric tons of A.U. Metal in the Chase Manhattan Bank in the mid to late 1930's? If true, then where did this gold come from?

There sure seems to be a lot of collaborating sources confirming the Chase Manhattan relationship and deposits in his name in this bank before he died. Note: This was also long before any Japanese Spoils of war ever existed or was ever heard of.

I have been warned from almost the first when it was learned that I was attempting to write a book on all of this, that I shouldn't dare do it, because "THEY" will kill you. Who were "They" that I was being warned about?"

I know beyond any doubt today who "They" are. But, "They" may have waited too long to still kill me. (Other than just being simply ticked off because of my determination to continue to write and tell this story), But, what good would it do them now? Especially, if you are only one of hoped for millions who are reading even this Web Site Worldwide. Besides, they seem to have gotten away with their lies, cover-ups and shenanigans fairly well since the end of World War II, and especially since the death of the late Sta. Romana. So why add perhaps even more credibility regarding what is written in the Golden Karat Series of books by killing me at this point? The simple reasons should be, why take a chance on jeopardizing this position in any way from here on out?

Why today has the author's perfectly legal position changed in this entire affair other than in the beginning being strictly as an investigator into this wild chain of events?

Why today, is Mr. Brown's (the author) signature (most likely) the only truly legal signature available if there were ever circumstances that would justifiably cause any true settlements relating to the late Sta. Romana/Diaz estate to even take place?

Note: Luz Rambano Sta. Romana - Brown (Who was the only person's name ever added by the late Sta. Romana along with his, as the only other proper authorized person to sign on many of his accounts worldwide) passed away in August of 2002.

However, Mr. Brown's basic attitude today is, he has chased The Golden Karat long enough. Besides, he says, that he has never heard of a crook who ever wanted to give anything back of what he/they thought that he/they had already gotten away with stealing. (Especially, this applies to powerful thieves, who can even use what they have stolen to prevent any average person from ever being able to get true justice).

What is the real truth behind the boxes of alleged post World War II filled with billions of U.S. bearer bonds in the face amounts running into the billions of U.S. dollars in each box?

The U.S. Government official position up and since the young George Bush took office has always been that no such bonds exist or were ever printed by the U.S. Treasury.

Without any doubt or question most of these boxes allegedly filled with these items that one runs into day is absolutely as phony as a $3.00 bill. But for a short period just before Bill Clinton leaf the Presidency, it was announced that he agreed to allow such items if authenticated to be surrendered to the U.S. Government for a huge percentage of the contents.

Once this was known, Manila filled up again with the known international hustlers from most every country in the (However, almost immediately after President Bush took office, he immediately reversed the Government's position to the old long-standing rhetoric and Manila emptied of the hustlers for the most part about as fast as they had poured in).

Therefore, what is the real truth behind not only these items, but also the alleged safes filled with actual U.S. dollars that were issued in part just prior to World War II and also during the war for the purpose of paying bills in the Far East. (Safes allegedly containing 25, 50 and 75 million U.S. dollars each)?

The promotional film furnished with the Golden Karat Series of books, not only has these items pictured, but also other items bantered around in the Philippines today, such as what is referred to as the Reagan uncut dollars and the obvious truth and story behind this as well.

Therefore, the big questions remaining for us average truth seeking individuals around the world has to be,

How has, and still are, these events affecting our lives personally today?

Even more importantly:

How have, and will these events still affect the lives of our children, grandchildren, and generations to follow?

What and who is behind a group calling themselves the Alpha Omega group and who claim that they are affiliated with the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank who has authorized them to be able to claim and take former accounts held by the late Sta. Romana/Diaz?

We believe that these questions and their answers are only a few of the never before published truth's in this incredible chain of events. The author has devoted over 15 years of his life conducting interviews, as well the gathering of hundreds of pages of documents and photos worldwide in his search for absolute facts, supporting documents and the truth. This included actual testimony from many of actual principals whom without question have been a part and played key roles in this fantastic story. It is now his desire to release what he was told in written form in a manner to where no true open minded person could ever challengeable or put forth a reasonable response that could ever generate anything that would even come close to any believable or recognizable legitimate denials. This without question places the Golden Karat Series of books as being without question in no way comparable to any normal set of three (3) books ever offered before.

Personal From The Author: he Golden Karat Set of books were originally written as strictly an insurance policy in case I was not able to help the deserving people that I was ask and attempted to help. Today, despite totally different legal circumstances, I'm a total realist, and now I not only believes it's long past time that this side of the story was told, but long past time that I at least tried to recover at least a small part of the over three million U.S. dollars, and the 15 years of his life already spent.

Once a very old wise Filipino man told me,

"You know Jim, as a nation and people, we have almost always been ruled over by others. First it was the Spanish, then the Americans and finally the Japanese. But the worst of all the enemies that we have ever had as a nation and people, without any question, has to be the enemy from within. We could always recognize the Spanish, the Americans and the Japanese. But, at times it's very difficult to recognize the enemy from within".

We would like everyone who has an interest in the truth to have this story and see our documents in a presented manner to where there is absolutely no doubts, misquotes or understandings as to what we are now ready to make available

If you are a person who is truly interested in knowing at least this side of the story, you now can have this information in the following manner.

Number One: You can own this 3 volume series of books (approximately over 1600 printed pages) in what we have decided to call our "Talking books". This consist of 16 two hour professionally read C.Ds that can be played on your car radio or any other CD player and covers the entire written story and key conversations along with events as they took place. (If one purchases the CDs individually in any book or record store, they alone would have to command a retail value of a minimum of $7.50 each. x - 16 or a normal retail value of at least $120.00

You will also be sent a Videotape or CD film footage of real items being taken from the original World War II hiding place in the spring of 1998. (I can assure anyone that our film footage has more obvious credibility than another recent film showing perhaps a small 150 pound Japanese soldier carrying what is indicated as a large wooden crate up a steep mountain, and follow thereafter by these soldiers opening one of these crates, and to find what anyone knowing anything at all about the size of gold bars to weight would realize would have been at least 75-kilo bars (150 plus pounds each). I seriously doubt if they could have gotten an elephant to be able to do this. This is just another example of how hustlers have tried to capitalize on this story no matter if their information was true or not.

This Video or CD Rom also pictures most all of the nowadays proclaimed or so-called Yamashita Treasure items still being offered today. (Especially in the Philippines.) Along with the commentary as to what and whom one must look out for. (Note: There's no doubt that thousands of totally wasted dollars could have been saved by many had this Video or CD been available to them in the past. This CD film or Cassette Video tape alone would simply have to have a retail value of another $24.50.

But that's not all for those who would like to go back perhaps and read all 3 books in printed form. If however, we printed these books even in paper back, here again they would have to carry a minimum retail value of $24.50 each. Therefore all three books in printed form would come to another $73.50 But what we have decided to do is add to our offer all 3 books in written form on another CD Ram. (You've got back up for everything else).

In reality this total package of information presented in listen to, read and view form would have a realistic value of a total of $ 218.00

Quite frankly we would like to be in a position to give everyone in the world this information and the opportunity to hear the conversations and see the documents and photos we have assembled absolutely free of charge. But this would not be realistic. We do have the cost of whatever one would be sending to anyone, the cost of discounting their credit card order, the cost of accounting and other administrating expenses but also the tremendous cost of making people aware of what we are trying to accomplish.

However, we don't expect anyone to pay what might be normal retail for what we are offering. And especially since we also subscribe to the philosophy that,

"Once the work has begun, never stop until it's done. May the labor be great or small; do it well or not at all"

What we can realistically do is offer our customers an approximate 55% discount over what one would consider a normal cost for all of this, and make our Talking Books, The film in either cassette or video tape, and the read only version of all three books available to our customers for only $98.65 (plus $7.50 for the actual cost of shipping and handling direct to your home, office or designated destination.

BUT: That's not all you will receive if you order now. You will also receive absolutely free of charge, a one year subscription to our quarterly update which we call "Simple Common Sense". This will contain not only updates on the subjects and events contained in our books, but also new and documented reports on any new con or swindle trying to be perpetrated on people around the world at the time.

We can't do much better in trying to inform the world of what we believe the true facts are. And to allow our readers to be the judge themselves as to what they want to believe.

"The Largest Theft In The History of Mankind"

The book & documents they don't want printed or exposed

Based on over 10 years of research and gathering of documents

YOU BE THE JUDGE AS TO THE TRUTH

What is this book that a leading New York publishing house told the author's agent in the spring of 1996, "We really wanted to publish and distribute the book "The Golden Karat", but it's simply too hot to handle?"

Is freedom of the press dead in America if one tries to write & present documents that exposes the misdeeds of the super rich & powerful?

Where did a great part of the money come from for such projects as unauthorized secret wars & a large office complex just outside Washington D.C. built for the CIA that even the U.S. press admitted was unknown to the U.S. Congress?

Who was this mystery man Severino Garcia Sta. Romana

(pronounced Santa Romana), who was also known as Jose Antonio Diaz? Some say that he was affiliated with General Douglas MacArthur & Major General Edward G. Landsdale during and at the end of World War II. It's said that they helped to continue to promote an organization that still today actually controls the worlds of international banking and politics even right here in the United States.

What is the truth behind the Japanese spoils of war known as the Yamashita Treasure? Did it actually exist? If so, what happened to it?

What is the truth regarding the downfall of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines? (It sure doesn't appear as though it was any people power revolution.) & what is the alleged common denominator between this act & the assassination of John F. Kennedy?

Why as late as the spring of 1996, after being in effect for over 20 years, was there an action instituted in the New York courts to dislodge the rights and authority of the late Sta. Romana's widow? A movement that was spearheaded by a former U.S. Security & Exchange Commissioner & allegedly high-ranking members within the government of Fidel Ramos of the Philippines?

Why after President George Bush was defeated in his bid for re-election as President of the United States was it announced that he had taken a position with Citibank of New York and a Canadian Gold Cartel? What service was President Bush asked to perform? (Since Citibank is one of the principal banks who is alleged to have connived with Ferdinand Marcos & others, including members within the U.S. Government in stealing billions of dollars from the late Sta. Romana/Diaz's estate in cash and gold bullion was President Bush asked to handle the sale of this gold? If, not why unlike all of our other former presidents, is his pension as President, CIA Director & years of public service not enough?

What will be the position of the newly elected government in the Philippines of Joseph Estrada regarding the truth and the justice that they can contribute in this matter? Or is it just going to be more of the same regarding kowtowing to special interest groups inside and outside of the Philippines, while at the same time, as in the past, is it also going to be just a continued effort of trying to fill personal pockets?

Why has the author been warned on several occasions that his life would be in danger if he continued to try and tell this story or publish this book?

Many who have read this book say that it is one of the most interesting & informative books that they have ever read.

One nation-wide syndicated radio talk show host refers to it as the book of the century and says it's a must read for anyone wanting to know the truth.

THERE IS LITTLE WONDER WHY MANY DON'T WANT THIS BOOK PRINTED AND THE DOCUMENTS EXPOSED.

Galactic Federation Of Light Archangel Michael August 24 2011

Beloved masters, as the Light Cells of God Consciousness infiltrate deeper and deeper into the physical structure, the membranes of Light surrounding the DNA begin to dissolve. As part of this Sub-Universal experience, this was programmed into the Adam/Eve Kadmon Light Body blueprint so that the activation of the DNA strands would take place two at a time.

The DNA strands are attuned to the different dimensional levels. The two strands which are now available and active in the physical vessel are attuned to the first-, second- and third- dimensional levels. As we have told you before, as you sank into the density of the lower dimensions, two by two, your DNA strands were encased in membranes of Light and placed in reserve until the time you were ready to begin your journey back into the higher dimensions of Light.

First, second and third dimensions: Two Strands of DNA

Fourth and fifth dimensions: Four Strands of DNA

Sixth and seventh dimensions: Six Strands of DNA

Eighth and ninth dimensions: Eight Strands of DNA

Tenth and eleventh dimensions: Ten Strands of DNA

Twelfth dimension: Twelve Strands of DNA

For clarity and to help you understand the sequence of Higher Self/OverSoul integration, let us assign numbers to each facet of your Higher Self. You were born with a facet of your God Self enclosed within a Sphere of Light. Encoded within your DNA, your auric field and the memory Cells throughout your body were the frequencies you were to experience in the beginning stages of your life. If everything went according to plan, sometime in your early years of life you awakened to the nudging /whisperings of your Soul Self, and a Soul/personality merge process began. We will call this your number One Soul Self.

Your number Two Soul Self, which we will call your OverSoul, took up residency within your Soul Star, the Eighth Chakra, at the time of your birth. If you heed the "Voice of Spirit," gradually, over time, this higher dimensional facet of your Soul OverLights you and radiates Its refined Light frequencies into your chakra system and auric field.

When the integration of this facet of your higher consciousness is complete, at the appropriate time your number Three Soul Self, the next more advanced Spark of your multi-dimensional Being, moves down into the Eighth Chakra position and becomes your OverSoul consciousness. This process will be repeated over and over again until, sometime in the far distant future, you will be reunited with your Divine I AM Presence / your God Self.

When you began your adventure into the physical realms of materiality, you slowly built a garment of flesh around your shining, crystalline Light Body. A Sphere of Light was placed in the back area of the body behind your physical heart. This Light Sphere, which would be called your Sacred Heart, became the home of your Soul/Higher Self, and your Diamond Core God Cell was also placed within this Sacred Chamber.

The qualities, attributes and virtues of the Seven Rays of God Consciousness were also placed within Spheres of Light. These spheres, known as chakras, were designed to spin at a very high velocity, which made them appear to be spinning cones of Light radiating from the front and back of the physical body.

Now you are striving to reverse the process as you seek to eliminate all the discordant frequencies you have created down through the ages, thereby purifying your four-lower bodily systems, physical, mental, emotional and astral, so that you can move beyond your physiological limitations.

You must move from a self-centered attitude; however, this does not occur until you are well on the path of ascension. Remember, we have told you there is a virtue in “selfishness” or a time of intense self-absorption when you are endeavoring to heal/balance your human bodily vessel in preparation for an infusion of higher frequency Light. This preparatory stage is important for each higher level of Light infusion; otherwise it would be like inserting a 110 volt electrical plug into a 220 volt outlet, which would result in an instant shock and, most likely, the destruction of the appliance (physical vessel).

It is extremely important that you focus on refining the seven chakras of the bodily form, thereby creating /activating your Pillar of Light that runs in front of the spinal column. This Pillar of Light must reestablish its connection to the Heart Core Center of the Earth and to your Star Tetrahedron, your Soul Star, which is eight to twelve inches above the crown of your head. When this is accomplished, you will gradually gain access to the five higher Rays of Creator Light, which will complete your Divine imprint for this particular Round of Evolution.

We must explain, however, that during your journey back into the higher dimensions, you will be asked to accept many special missions and you will usually agree; for this is the way the ascension process was designed. You will forever seek to return to the fullness of your God Consciousness, but you will also maintain a burning desire to serve in some way; for deep within your Sacred Heart there is a Seed Crystal that pulsates with pure love and an inborn desire to serve.

It was ordained that many facets/Sparks of the angelic kingdom and of other great Beings of Light would incarnate on Earth and follow the path of humans. Portals of initiation were opened and have remained open down through the Ages. However, in the past, only a few brave Souls made it past the gateway of illumination and gained Self-mastery.

Conscious awareness is developed through gradual stages of awakening and understanding more complex and refined concepts. As you progress, you will gradually gain access to higher and higher dimensional-levels of consciousness during your nightly Astral Body travels. You are taken to halls of learning and eventually into halls of wisdom. Over time, you will join World Server Groups who breathe in and radiate forth waves of Adamantine Particles of Creator Light to be used for the greatest good.

How will you know when you are eligible to join members of your Soul group in the World Server Pyramid? You will automatically be taken there when your Soul Song resonates to the mid-fourth dimensions and above. You will go there when you have balanced 51% of your karma, and are truly making an effort to control your emotional nature. You will go there when you begin to see the best in those around you, and you are endeavoring to move out of judgment as you learn to view life and the world through eyes filtered with compassion.

Allow us to explain to you the makeup of the World Server Pyramid. Envision a gigantic crystal pyramid in the fifth dimension, with the peak and the double-terminated crystal extending up into the first level of the sixth dimension. Within this wondrous edifice are graduated levels of the fifth- and lower sixth-dimensional frequency patterns.

There are thousands of smaller pyramids, each of which resonate to particular harmonic frequencies of Light. You might equate these pyramids to small cities of Light. When the time arrives that you are qualified to join the group of World Servers, you will be taken into the Light pyramid that is attuned to your particular vibrational patterns. As you advance in Light resonance, you will move ever upward into higher and higher stations of Light within the World Server Pyramid. This too is an integral part of the ascension process.

The focused gaze of humanity is being lifted out of the stifling quagmire of earthly existence onto the far-distant horizon of the future. Desire for material riches is being replaced with a yearning for Soul consciousness. World Servers will be held together by a strong Soul connection: a remembrance of a solemn oath to serve humanity, with a common goal of ascending in consciousness.

The Divine Blueprint for this Sub-Universe was created as a twelve-dimensional experience. There are other Sub-Universes that were created to experience a greater number of dimensions and some others with fewer dimensions. The Earth and the solar system of which it is a part, are in the process of reintegrating all of the attributes, qualities and virtues of the twelve Rays of God Consciousness in order to be eligible to join in the next higher degree of the Divine Plan for the expansion of this Sub-Universe.

Over time, evolution of consciousness is followed by stages of evolution within the physical vessel. Form always follows thought. The human body is being prepared to receive the higher frequencies of Creator Light, the Adamantine Particles of Sacred Fire Light. You must evolve from a passive mode of Being into a newly refined State of Being as an action-oriented, expansive Bearer of Light if you are to become a COCREATIVE MASTER OF LIGHT.

As you turn inward and reach upward for higher frequency concepts and information, you will automatically begin to withdraw from the astral plane, collective consciousness belief system. From a spiritual viewpoint, evolution means a steadily increasing sensitivity to vibrational frequencies and an ability to integrate more Creator Essence, which results in greater illumination and a more compassionate nature.

The intuition of an intelligent, awakened person leads to a greater understanding of the Divine Plan for humanity and the part he/she is to play. Focused intelligence is necessary to successfully enter the fifth dimension and, then, to tap into the vast storehouse of wisdom and advanced abilities available therein. Meditation and a strong Soul-consciousness open the portal to cosmic revelation.

When needed, appropriate, expanded information will always be supplied to the aspirant on the path of Light. Your next step and the action needed are revealed one level at a time. Think of telepathic communication with the Beings of the Higher Realms as receiving Light cells of thought/information. You must practice to perfect the ability to create a vivid picture of your ideas, and to hold them long enough until they register within your brain and the Ethers. Remember, energy follows thought.

Light is both energy and matter. Electrification or conversion of matter / energy happens when energy is processed through a Pyramid of Light; as the human mind reaches out to the en-Lighten-ed Beings of the higher realms, it results in an energy conversion. Gradually, using these advanced techniques and perfecting them release you from the laws of entropy / decay, and you slowly begin the process of rejuvenation.

You are also gradually moving from one type of visibility to a more advanced state. You will be moving beyond the ultraviolet spectrum of color and Light into the many higher frequency, electromagnetic spectrums of Light. You are also being prepared to work on many levels of intelligence.

You cannot escape the streams of energy that are constantly bombarding the Earth and humanity. The life-giving energy of the great Rays radiates forth from our Father/Mother God via the Great Central Sun of this universe throughout the myriad suns of the Sub-Universes, galaxies and solar systems. There are also specialized frequencies of cosmic energy pulsating throughout this Sub-Universe from the many constellations and other solar systems, as well as the pulse and heartbeat of your Mother Earth, which has a direct influence upon all living things.

Many of the cosmic forces of the higher dimensional frequencies are beneficial, life-sustaining and enhancing, while those of the lower, discordant frequencies of the third / fourth dimensions are detrimental and limiting. Every Soul determines which of the multitude of frequencies they will respond to via their Energetic Signature. In doing so, they either create their personal heaven on Earth or their private hell.

Your brain is a magnificent organ and contains a vast number of “consciousness-frequency Life Codes.” Most of your genius potential has been stored away in the higher-dimensional levels of your Sacred Mind, which is located at the back of the head near the crown chakra. Your Soul Song contains the frequencies which will assist you in accessing this rich storehouse of knowledge. Every octave of frequency acceleration gives you access to a higher level of God Consciousness. Your brain/mind holds the keys to mastership and illumination.

Dear hearts, remember, if you are focused only on your personal ascension, you are misinterpreting our messages. As you tread the high road that leads to illumination, you must reach out and touch the hearts of others through your words, actions and deeds. A true disciple on the Path leads a life of service.

A disciple on the Path gradually moves beyond physical family duties and responsibilities as his/her consciousness, wisdom and Light magnify. Gradually, the aspirant’s influence expands, and his / her opportunity to become a true wayshower increases. It takes constant and deliberate effort to tame the ego, and to gain the knowledge and expertise necessary to become a World Server. You must be an outstanding example and have the ability to excite and stimulate desire for spiritual wisdom in order to serve humanity as a guiding Light.

My brave friends, we know how it feels to bask in the perfection of Creator Love/Light. You are just beginning to understand, and the yearning within will grow stronger and more compelling as you reach higher and higher into the illumined realms of existence. In the beginning we were in perfect rapport and finely attuned, one with another. Together, we are slowly but surely returning to that beautiful state of unity.

I am forever your friend and constant companion,

I AM Archangel Michael.

The Golden Karat

The Alleged Largest Theft and Cover-up in the Entire History of Mankind

Events and actions that have and still are today affecting the lives of millions of people worldwide.

Now you can judge the truth for yourself. "Tis strange to know how little one knows, in order to truly know how little they know".

In the late 1990's when the author attempted to publish the first book in this now three volume series of books, he and his attorney were both told by their appointed literary agent at the time, "I'm in total shock, because I just received a telephone call from my friend in New York who was talking the 3 million advance with us for the publishing rights of the Golden Karat, and he just said to me, that many in his firm wanted to publish the book, but it was finally decided that it was simply too hot to handle". Therefore, must one not ask:

Is freedom of the press now dead in America, if one tries to expose the misdeeds of the Super Rich and Powerful?

What is the real truth and story behind not only World War II, but also Vietnam and the current Middle East and the Philippine problems today? Have we now opened a can of worms that will not be too easy to seal, without it costing the lives of possibly hundreds of millions world wide, including in the once good old U.S.A. ?

(Is not the same old game of war for money in full swing once again?)

What truly is the background and reasons for all of this?

(One must know the true history, in order to properly judge the present).

If all of this is true, then how have and still are not only the average Americans, but also most people around the world paying for all of this, and at what cost?

Did these Japanese spoils of war known today as the Yamashita Treasure ever truly exist?

If so, what happened to it?

If at one time this was not true, then why did the newly formed United Nations at the end of World War II, extend their World War II "Spoils of War Act" an extra 10 years beyond the first act, concerning this only?

Where did this almost unbelievable amount of reported wealth consisting of precious metals, jewels and wealth come from?

Who was this mystery man (legally known as) Severino Garcia Sta. Romana and Jose Antonio Diaz?

(Pronounced "Santa Romana"?)

There seems to be enough supporting evidence to establish the fact that he truly existed. There also seems to be enough documented evidence and first hand testimony that at his death in 1977, that he owned or at least controlled - reportedly

over:

One Trillion - Eight Hundred Billion U.S. dollars in cash or precious metal deposited in banks and financial institutions worldwide.

(Sounds impossible we know).

But don't be too quick to disregard this or the reported amounts involved. Because, there is now available a great deal of what appears to be authentic documented confirmations that many of the larger Banking and Financial Institutions, as well as various Government Agencies, who have been involved in trying (Reportedly even under the banner within the Government of the United States of it being a National Security Issue". While reportedly at the same time certain elements within the U.S. Government have been busy attempting to cover-up what has already and is still taking place. While their bidders continue in attempting to claim as large of a part of this wealth as they can manage to still take for themselves or their secret worldwide projects. (Serious charges we realize if true. However, the Golden Karat Series of books are only reporting what we were told during our investigations and by who told us certain things, especially if we have more than one source of confirmation. (Also, if there are documents that back-up what was told to us, we also include them for our readers review.

For an example: Why did one former U.S. Senator reportedly say, "If you can find the true legal heirs of the late Severino Sta. Romana, there's a fortune to be made from this. Because, the single largest theft and cover-up in the entire history of mankind has and still is going on right here in Washington D.C."

What was the late Sta. Romana's special relations with General's Douglas MacArthur & Edward G. Landsdale during World War II and the years immediately following the war?

What is the story regarding a secret organization controlled by a chosen few whose policy is to control the world's wealth, then you can control the world of politics and thusly the entire world?

Does such an organization truly exist?

Even certain highly thought of Ministers in the Seventh Day Adventist Church seem to have the courage to stand up and claim that indeed it does.

What if any was the late Sta. Romana's role in such an organization? Also, what was his reported role regarding being one of the founding fathers of the U.S. CIA, and what was his reported involvement in both of these situations?

What was the alleged personal relationship that existed between General Douglas MacArthur and the final commanding General of the Japanese occupying forces in the Philippines General Yamashita before, during, and right after the Japanese surrender to U.S. Forces near the final end of World War II?

There sure seems to be at least a partly documented history of this.

Did this play any role on what is going on today?

Was General Yamashita truly put to death under the direction of General MacArthur at the end of the Philippine campaign? Or was he as reported by some given a new identity, personal wealth, and allowed to live out his life in luxury in exile, while another devoted Kamikaze type in the Japanese army at the time, was given money for his family and was put to death for the benefit of the world press in his place?

Reports taken from people involved at the time. However, you as a reader must indeed judge this one for yourself. Although we feel that it may indeed be a very vital part of the entire story, we also found that it was almost impossible to be able to show documented proof, unlike most of the other serious topics contained in our books.

What is the true claimed connection and relationship between Madame Imelda Marcos and the late Sta. Romana/Diaz?

(If what is alleged and claimed is indeed true, and if true justice had ever been administered, then there would seem to be no way that her and her own biological children could have ever be justifiably accused in the past, or could ever be properly accused in the future of taking any ill-gotten wealth from anyone. (Sadly, at-times people are ill-advised by those money hungry people they trust, or they have simply forgotten the age-old adage that the simple truth will-set one free).

What is the truth regarding the assignation of Ninoy Aquino at the Manila International Airport?

What seems to be the real truth regarding the much published "Golden Buddha Case", where a Hawaiian Judge issued a multi- billion dollar judgment against the estate of the late Ferdinand Marcos?

What were the late Sta. Romana's duly documented widow's stories concerning all of the above, along with her stories of personal visits with her late husband to see the Queen of England and Prince Philip in London. Or her comments regarding a personal visit with her late husband to Japan, and once there being a house guest for several days of the late Emperor Hirohito in the Imperial Palace in Tokyo. This coupled along with her stories of their associations with many other well known figures around the world before his death?

(Written and repeated as actually word for word as possible to write).

If basically all of this is true, and there seems to be enough solid confirmations, testimony and documents furnished from many of the original people involved as to what truly has and still is happening up until this very day regarding many of these reported events and to this fortune. Then, what basically has this wealth been used for?

What is the true reason for the downfall of Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines?

It seems for sure it "Was Not" the much proclaimed and publicized so-called "People's Power Revolution".

Therefore, what is seemly the true details and true story behind this action and why?

What is the common interwoven connecting denominator between this act and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy of the United States?

Here again, there sure seems to be one.

Why has the general attitude changed today in the Philippines regarding the late Ferdinand Marcos?

The answer is obviously simple: Because of what they have gotten since.

Why were we able to confirm the transfer of millions of dollars in originally deposited funds in then what was named First National City Bank - New York, to now what is known as "Citibank" in the Bahamas and worldwide? Who had the right to authorize these transfers?

Why on one occasion during a meeting with a leading bank officer in what was then known as the Union Bank of Switzerland whose main office located in Zurich Switzerland (Now called United Bank of Switzerland) attended by the author, another American witness, and Mrs. Luz Sta. Romana. Why after Mrs. Sta. Romana and had given this bank officer her late husband's master account number in their bank did this bank officer reply?

"This is a correct account number issued by our bank Mrs. Sta. Romana, and I can now that it is what I thought it might be when Author here first suggested this meeting. But, I wouldn't suggested that you try to claim the assets it represents, at least not while you are personally in Switzerland." (These remarks caused Mrs. Sta. Romana to reply, "Why not? Because, when my late husband put his assets here, he sure didn't agree to give it to U.B.S.")

This statement and question caused the U.B.S. bank officer to laugh. He then replied,

"Of course not. But, since you are a personal friend of my friend here, I feel I must warn and tell you that before the bank, or even the Government of Switzerland would allow you to do this and attempt to take it out of Switzerland, they are not beyond having you killed first".

Re: Philippines..anyone heard about Jim Brown on treasures part 2

Note: For all I hold holy and respect, I the author of this Web Page and the Golden Karat Series of books without any doubt heard this warning myself". But had we not heard practically the same warning regarding the Jewish survivors of World War II, themselves and their relatives relating to deposits by them or their families. (Of course, Mrs. Sta. Romana didn't have any organized group to fight for her just rights as they finally did.

All she had were a group of totally undeserving rascals obtaining false Filipino passports, or other made up documents and inserting their names as Sta. Romana. Plus in many absolutely provable cases paying some local Filipino judge to issue court orders in their favors, and even worse, more powerful interest also seeking undeserving amounts of this estate simply by (with the cooperation of crooked bankers and others covering up and changing the original records and facts. (This issue more than anything else, despite the huge amounts involved is what turns this entire story into the worldwide event that it is. Note: Some say this is by-gone history. But It's far from that. Also, for this reason alone, it for sure makes it's long past time, that at least a sincere effort and attempt is made at trying to tell the world this side of the story, along with any seemingly documents that would appear to support it. (Let the readers judge the truth for themselves).

Why was the late Sta. Romana's widow (Luz Rombano Sta. Roman) and the first fully documented person ever appointed by both the Philippine and New York Courts as the principal heir and administrator of her late husband's estate (Severino Garcia Sta. Romana/aka Jose Antonio Diaz), court order attempted to be dismissed in the late 1990's? (After being on record for over 15 years) This attempt involved a former member of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and reported high ranking members at the time in the then Fidel Ramos Government in the Philippines?

Why have over 16 former and present day Heads of States, along with many of the leading figures in well known World Banks and Financial Institution names continued to come up in 15 years of gathering documents and investigations into all of this?

What was the late Sta. Romana's role in helping Henry Kissinger and President Richard Nixon in being able to institute more or less what one might call normal diplomatic relations for the first time since the end of World War II between Mainland China and the United States of America?

(This for sure has been confirmed by several different sources).

What is Mrs. Sta. Romana's story regarding her personal conversation, (as she put it), "When Richard Nixon finally got over his crying jag in San Clemente, California and moved back to New York City".

What also was not only her late husband's relationship, but hers as well with the late Bill Casey, the Director of the CIA when he died?

What also is the story behind her claim of speaking directly with President George Bush while he was still President of the United States about her problems?

I the author was not personally present during either of these alleged conversations with President Bush. But, others did confirm to me that they were present when the conversation with the White House and President Bush took place. I also later on wrote to President Bush relating to what I was told that Bush promised and told her. But, I never got a reply from Bush, nor from any of his staff as later I did when I also wrote to other prominent political figures in Washington D.C. (They for the most part at first at least acknowledge my inquiries, until they finally realized what was behind and going on regarding what I was writing about).

In view of this, and what we do know for sure, Would this not cause anyone's eye-brows to rise slightly, when one read after being defeated for a second term as President of the United States, when the newspapers carried reports of how our former President had taken a position with Citibank in New York, and later some Canadian gold cartel?

(Was his retirement payment not enough? And whose gold was he interested in concerning the Canadian Gold Cartel?).

Note However: At least President Bush was not openly advocating a "New World Movement". He was only expounding in his rhetoric to describe, (even perhaps with the purest and best intentions his part and beliefs in his words as, "A New World Order". Note Two: For the life of me, I'm not trying to personally put President Bush or perhaps his beliefs down. After all, as an American, I still believe that those are his prerogatives, President, x-President or not. However, I'm still old fashioned enough of an American to believe that others, including me should have at least the same right to express our personal viewpoints as well. I also believe we Americans should have the right to write the results of what we have investigated and been told without any threats or worries of someone killing one who attempts to do this.

It is reported by Mrs. Sta. Romana that her late husband had his first gold bullion account put in his name when he was only 8 years of age (around 1916). So, where did this gold come from?

It's for sure that this at least could not be any part of any World War II spoils of war. But it sure appears as though most everything he owned has been stolen since his death.

What was the late Sta. Romana's relation and personal friendship with the Rockefeller family in New York, especially Winthrop before he died?

What is the truth and story behind the late Sta. Romana depositing over 3300 metric tons of A.U. Metal in the Chase Manhattan Bank in the mid to late 1930's? If true, then where did this gold come from?

There sure seems to be a lot of collaborating sources confirming the Chase Manhattan relationship and deposits in his name in this bank before he died. Note: This was also long before any Japanese Spoils of war ever existed or was ever heard of.

I have been warned from almost the first when it was learned that I was attempting to write a book on all of this, that I shouldn't dare do it, because "THEY" will kill you. Who were "They" that I was being warned about?"

I know beyond any doubt today who "They" are. But, "They" may have waited too long to still kill me. (Other than just being simply ticked off because of my determination to continue to write and tell this story), But, what good would it do them now? Especially, if you are only one of hoped for millions who are reading even this Web Site Worldwide. Besides, they seem to have gotten away with their lies, cover-ups and shenanigans fairly well since the end of World War II, and especially since the death of the late Sta. Romana. So why add perhaps even more credibility regarding what is written in the Golden Karat Series of books by killing me at this point? The simple reasons should be, why take a chance on jeopardizing this position in any way from here on out?

Why today has the author's perfectly legal position changed in this entire affair other than in the beginning being strictly as an investigator into this wild chain of events?

Why today, is Mr. Brown's (the author) signature (most likely) the only truly legal signature available if there were ever circumstances that would justifiably cause any true settlements relating to the late Sta. Romana/Diaz estate to even take place?

Note: Luz Rambano Sta. Romana - Brown (Who was the only person's name ever added by the late Sta. Romana along with his, as the only other proper authorized person to sign on many of his accounts worldwide) passed away in August of 2002.

However, Mr. Brown's basic attitude today is, he has chased The Golden Karat long enough. Besides, he says, that he has never heard of a crook who ever wanted to give anything back of what he/they thought that he/they had already gotten away with stealing. (Especially, this applies to powerful thieves, who can even use what they have stolen to prevent any average person from ever being able to get true justice).

What is the real truth behind the boxes of alleged post World War II filled with billions of U.S. bearer bonds in the face amounts running into the billions of U.S. dollars in each box?

The U.S. Government official position up and since the young George Bush took office has always been that no such bonds exist or were ever printed by the U.S. Treasury.

Without any doubt or question most of these boxes allegedly filled with these items that one runs into day is absolutely as phony as a $3.00 bill. But for a short period just before Bill Clinton leaf the Presidency, it was announced that he agreed to allow such items if authenticated to be surrendered to the U.S. Government for a huge percentage of the contents.

Once this was known, Manila filled up again with the known international hustlers from most every country in the (However, almost immediately after President Bush took office, he immediately reversed the Government's position to the old long-standing rhetoric and Manila emptied of the hustlers for the most part about as fast as they had poured in).

Therefore, what is the real truth behind not only these items, but also the alleged safes filled with actual U.S. dollars that were issued in part just prior to World War II and also during the war for the purpose of paying bills in the Far East. (Safes allegedly containing 25, 50 and 75 million U.S. dollars each)?

The promotional film furnished with the Golden Karat Series of books, not only has these items pictured, but also other items bantered around in the Philippines today, such as what is referred to as the Reagan uncut dollars and the obvious truth and story behind this as well.

Therefore, the big questions remaining for us average truth seeking individuals around the world has to be,

How has, and still are, these events affecting our lives personally today?

Even more importantly:

How have, and will these events still affect the lives of our children, grandchildren, and generations to follow?

What and who is behind a group calling themselves the Alpha Omega group and who claim that they are affiliated with the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank who has authorized them to be able to claim and take former accounts held by the late Sta. Romana/Diaz?

We believe that these questions and their answers are only a few of the never before published truth's in this incredible chain of events. The author has devoted over 15 years of his life conducting interviews, as well the gathering of hundreds of pages of documents and photos worldwide in his search for absolute facts, supporting documents and the truth. This included actual testimony from many of actual principals whom without question have been a part and played key roles in this fantastic story. It is now his desire to release what he was told in written form in a manner to where no true open minded person could ever challengeable or put forth a reasonable response that could ever generate anything that would even come close to any believable or recognizable legitimate denials. This without question places the Golden Karat Series of books as being without question in no way comparable to any normal set of three (3) books ever offered before.

Personal From The Author: he Golden Karat Set of books were originally written as strictly an insurance policy in case I was not able to help the deserving people that I was ask and attempted to help. Today, despite totally different legal circumstances, I'm a total realist, and now I not only believes it's long past time that this side of the story was told, but long past time that I at least tried to recover at least a small part of the over three million U.S. dollars, and the 15 years of his life already spent.

Once a very old wise Filipino man told me,

"You know Jim, as a nation and people, we have almost always been ruled over by others. First it was the Spanish, then the Americans and finally the Japanese. But the worst of all the enemies that we have ever had as a nation and people, without any question, has to be the enemy from within. We could always recognize the Spanish, the Americans and the Japanese. But, at times it's very difficult to recognize the enemy from within".

We would like everyone who has an interest in the truth to have this story and see our documents in a presented manner to where there is absolutely no doubts, misquotes or understandings as to what we are now ready to make available

If you are a person who is truly interested in knowing at least this side of the story, you now can have this information in the following manner.

Number One: You can own this 3 volume series of books (approximately over 1600 printed pages) in what we have decided to call our "Talking books". This consist of 16 two hour professionally read C.Ds that can be played on your car radio or any other CD player and covers the entire written story and key conversations along with events as they took place. (If one purchases the CDs individually in any book or record store, they alone would have to command a retail value of a minimum of $7.50 each. x - 16 or a normal retail value of at least $120.00

You will also be sent a Videotape or CD film footage of real items being taken from the original World War II hiding place in the spring of 1998. (I can assure anyone that our film footage has more obvious credibility than another recent film showing perhaps a small 150 pound Japanese soldier carrying what is indicated as a large wooden crate up a steep mountain, and follow thereafter by these soldiers opening one of these crates, and to find what anyone knowing anything at all about the size of gold bars to weight would realize would have been at least 75-kilo bars (150 plus pounds each). I seriously doubt if they could have gotten an elephant to be able to do this. This is just another example of how hustlers have tried to capitalize on this story no matter if their information was true or not.

This Video or CD Rom also pictures most all of the nowadays proclaimed or so-called Yamashita Treasure items still being offered today. (Especially in the Philippines.) Along with the commentary as to what and whom one must look out for. (Note: There's no doubt that thousands of totally wasted dollars could have been saved by many had this Video or CD been available to them in the past. This CD film or Cassette Video tape alone would simply have to have a retail value of another $24.50.

But that's not all for those who would like to go back perhaps and read all 3 books in printed form. If however, we printed these books even in paper back, here again they would have to carry a minimum retail value of $24.50 each. Therefore all three books in printed form would come to another $73.50 But what we have decided to do is add to our offer all 3 books in written form on another CD Ram. (You've got back up for everything else).

In reality this total package of information presented in listen to, read and view form would have a realistic value of a total of $ 218.00

Quite frankly we would like to be in a position to give everyone in the world this information and the opportunity to hear the conversations and see the documents and photos we have assembled absolutely free of charge. But this would not be realistic. We do have the cost of whatever one would be sending to anyone, the cost of discounting their credit card order, the cost of accounting and other administrating expenses but also the tremendous cost of making people aware of what we are trying to accomplish.

However, we don't expect anyone to pay what might be normal retail for what we are offering. And especially since we also subscribe to the philosophy that,

"Once the work has begun, never stop until it's done. May the labor be great or small; do it well or not at all"

What we can realistically do is offer our customers an approximate 55% discount over what one would consider a normal cost for all of this, and make our Talking Books, The film in either cassette or video tape, and the read only version of all three books available to our customers for only $98.65 (plus $7.50 for the actual cost of shipping and handling direct to your home, office or designated destination.

BUT: That's not all you will receive if you order now. You will also receive absolutely free of charge, a one year subscription to our quarterly update which we call "Simple Common Sense". This will contain not only updates on the subjects and events contained in our books, but also new and documented reports on any new con or swindle trying to be perpetrated on people around the world at the time.

We can't do much better in trying to inform the world of what we believe the true facts are.
And to allow our readers to be the judge themselves as to what they want to believe.
